should be answerable to her for her life, for its value over 48l. yearly, and after her death, to the king and his heirs, for its value by extent over 50l. yearly. [Feudera.]

Oct. 17.
Westminster.

Grant to Ralph de Septem Fontibus, of Chelchethethe, that as long as he be the king's coroner in the county of Middlesex, he shall not be put on assizes, juries, or recognisances in the county of Essex, by reason of his lands in that county.

Oct. 20.
Westminster.

Appointment of Stephen de Foleburn, Adam de Stratton and William de Middelton to levy the arrears of the tallage on the king's Jews in England, with power to levy them on the goods and debts of defaulting Jews, and of compelling Jews who are rebellious or contradictory in this behalf, by exile or abjuration of the realm if necessary, to pay their portions.

Oct. 21.
Westminster.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Robert Bagod, as chief justice to hold the king's pleas in the Bench of Dublin, and to go on eyre for common pleas in that land, as has been customary in times past. [Feudera.]

Mandate to the justiciary of Ireland to admit him to that office. [Feudera.]

Pardon to Edmund, the king's brother, of all arrears of the farm of the wapentake of Wirkesworth, for the whole time it was in his hands to the day of St. Edward the King, 2 Edward I.

[Oct. 18.]
Westminster.

Presentation of Stephen de Sancto Georgio to the church of Lympelesham, in the diocese of Bath and Wells, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the abbey of Glastonbury.

The like of William de Blyburg to the church of Gledou in the diocese of St. Davids, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the lands of George de Cantilupo.

Oct. 21.
Westminster.

Pardon to Andrew Sarraceni—son of John Sarraceni, burgess of Limoges (de Castro Lemovicensi), and executor and almoner of John Guidonis, of Limoges Castle, deceased—of 50 pounds of money of Limoges, which the said John Guidonis in his last will ordered to be paid as amends to the king of England; and discharge of father and son and their heirs if they are bound to the king in anything.

Oct. 18.
Westminster.

Mandate to Stephen de Foleburn, bishop elect of Waterford, and William de Middelton to collect the arrears of the twentieth granted to Henry III. in aid of the Holy Land, and to take fines from defaulters.

Westminster.

Ratification of a grant by Robert de Monte Alto, steward of Chester, to Walter de Esturton and Juliana his wife, of his manor of Waleton with the advowson of the church for one year from a week after Martinmas.

Acknowledgment of the payment in the wardrobe by Master Raymond de Nogeris, pope's chaplain, to Master Thomas Bek, keeper of the wardrobe at the Tower of London, on Sunday the feast of the Apostles SS. Simon and Jude, 2 Edward I. of 400 marks, arrears of the tenth granted to the king for two years, collected by him.

Oct. 27.
Stepney.

Safe-conduct until Easter for the men of the abbot and convent of Waltham, bringing herring which they have in the city of Norwich, to their house.

Nov. 1.
Luton.

Grant to Iterius Bochard of the prebend which Geoffrey de Insula, deceased, had in the church of Dublin, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of that see.