Membrane 19—cont.

Southampton and of the fine last made by the bailiffs of that town with the king and of the said farm of the coming year.

Mandate to the bailiffs and good men of Southampton to make the payments above mentioned.

June 24.

Writ de intendendo directed to the bailiffs and barons of Sandwich, Dover, Hethe, Romen[hale], Winchelsea, Rye, Hastings and Pevenese, in favour of Luke de Luka and Donatus Lambard, king's merchants, and Ralph de Drokenesford, king's clerk, appointed keepers and bailiffs throughout the realm of the new custom on wool. [See Membrane 21.]

June 25.

Protection, until two years after Michaelmas, for John Bardun and Michael Bardun, merchants, and they are not to be distrained for any debt except those for which they are sureties or principal debtors.

July 2.

Letters for the abbot of Fécamp, nominating Stephen de Lond[on] and James le Herice his attorneys.

Mandate to Peter de Thelnetham to keep until further orders a falcon, which it is alleged he has in his hands, belonging to Anthony Bek, king's clerk, and which was delivered to him by certain persons in his parts.

Membrane 18.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Robert de Offord to the custody of the land of Ireland as justiciary thereof, and mandate to the archbishops, bishops, abbots, priors, earls, barons, freemen, and to all bailiffs and faithful people of Ireland, to assist him in correcting divers injuries and trespasses done to the king and others in the said land and in preserving the king's peace.

The like addressed to all bailiffs and faithful people of Ireland.

Mandate to the treasurer and chamberlains of the exchequer of Dublin, to pay him 500l. a year granted to him for the support of himself and 20 men-at-arms, so long as he remains in the said office.

Mandate to the said justiciary, and S. bishop of Waterford, treasurer, to provide the king with discreet bailiffs and ministers in Ireland who shall faithfully keep the bailiwicks and offices committed to them, and render their account of the same, and answer for the issues thereof at the exchequer of Dublin, so that whatever ought to be paid or delivered to any person on behalf of the king in the said land may be paid and delivered by the treasurer and chamberlains of the exchequer aforesaid.

Mandate to Thomas de Clare to deliver to the said justiciary the king's castle and county of Limerick in his custody.

The like to Walter de la Haye, or whoever holds the castle of Dungarvan, to deliver the said castle to the said justiciary.

The like to S. bishop of Waterford, treasurer of Ireland, to deliver the castle of Dublin to him.

The like to the same, to pay to the justiciary so much of the money arising from the issues of the land of Ireland as he shall demand from time to time, for the custody of the said land.