Membrane 24—cont.

Brian son of Alan de Bedale.
Geoffrey de Lucy.
William de Odingesole.
Robert de Ros the younger, going with Robert de Ros the elder.
Thomas son of Thomas de Moleton, going with Payn de Cadurcis.
Adam de Monte Alto.
William de Hawarthin, going with Adam de Monte Alto.
John le Tyeys.
William le Baud, going with William de Odingesele.
Robert de Ros.
William son of Robert de Ros, going with Robert de Ros.
John de Ry of Holm, going with Payn de Cadurcis.
Richard de Boys, going with Henry de Lacy, earl of Lincoln.
William de Percy, going with Payn de Cadurcis.
Geoffrey de Caunvill, going with the aforesaid Payn.
Thomas de Moleton, going with Henry de Laci.
Peter de Brumpton, going with the aforesaid Henry.
John de Vallibus.
Henry de Penebrigg, going with Henry de Lacy, earl of Lincoln.
David son of Griffin.
Robert de Mortuo Mari of Richards Castle.
Ralph de Wodeburg.
Geoffrey de Griseleye, going with Henry de Lacy, earl of Lincoln.
Humphrey de Bohun, earl of Hereford and Essex.
Walter de Say.
Henry de Lacy, earl of Lincoln.
Geoffrey de Abetot of Hyndelup, going with William de Bello Campo, earl of Warwick.
William de Brehuse.
Peter de Tatindon, going with John de Vallibus.
Ralph de Trehampton and Almaric de Brucourt, going with Henry de Lacy, earl of Lincoln.
William de Bello Campo, earl of Warwick.

Membrane 23.

Protection with clause nolumus, until All Saints, directed to Guncelin de Badlesmer, justice of Chester, and all other bailiffs and lieges of those parts, in favour of William son of Warin, bringing corn from Ireland to that county for the maintenance of himself and household.

Jan. 24. Worcester. Acquittance to Giles de Berkele, sheriff of Hereford, for 1,270l. of the moiety of the first payment of the fifteenth in the counties of Hereford and Devon, viz. 580l. from Hereford and 690l. from Devon, paid by him into the wardrobe to Master Thomas Bek, keeper of the wardrobe, on Saturday before the Conversion of St. Paul, 5 Edward I.

Power to the justice of Chester to let to farm, for four or five years, the king's demesnes of the county of Chester.

Mandate to the same to pay to Master Ralph de Besages, king's clerk, for certain business of the king, 500 marks out of the money delivered into his custody, in accordance with the king's precept, by Master Robert de Belvero and the sheriffs of Lancaster, Cumberland, and Westmoreland out of the fifteenth of the aforesaid counties.