1277.

Membrane 14—cont.

Mandate to Orlandinus de Podio and his fellows, merchants of Lucca, to pay, out of the king’s money which they will receive in the next fair of Boston, 101l. 5s. to Reynarid Aleman, merchant of Bordeaux, for wine taken from him to the king’s use.

May 25.

Licence for the canons and nuns of Alvingham to close a path between houses of theirs by which the parishioners of the said town have access to the parish church, as it appears by inquisition ad quod damnum made by Alexander de Monte Ferti that dangers and inconveniences arise from the said path to the injury of the said religious, provided that they make for the convenience of the parishioners and others, a path of at least the same width on the south side of the old path.

Appointment of Hugh de Dygeneaton and Janyan de Florencia as keepers and bailiffs throughout the realm, to receive to the king’s behoof a half mark on each sack of wool and a half mark on each 300 wool-fells making a sack, and one mark from each last of hides going out of the realm of England and the land of Wales, with power to inquire touching the said [new] custom, and those concealing and carrying it off, and of attaching such persons and delivering them after they have made satisfaction.

May 26.

Protection with clause voluntus, until Michaelmas, for Adam de Nortoft, going to Wales on the king’s service.

Letters for John de Brittannia, earl of Richmond, nominating Drogo de Fara and William Gerardi, clerk, his attorneys for three years.

Mandate to Reyner de Luka and Orlandinus de Podio and their fellows, merchants of Lucca, to pay to Elias de la Nande, merchant of Bordeaux, 322l., due to him from the king for 138 tuns of wine taken from him in London, and 6l. for 2 tuns taken from him and sent to Windsor to the use of the king’s children there, and 10l. for the cellage of the wines aforesaid.

Signification to the vicomte of Valoignes (Valon) that Emma, daughter of William le Manager of St. Ouon, Catteville, released and quit-claimed in the king’s presence for herself and her heirs to William her brother, the bearer of this patent, all her right and claim in a certain piece of land of St. Ouon, Catteville, of which the said William and Emma are heirs by the death of William le Menager their father.

Mandate to the justiciary of Ireland to retain in the king’s pay, during good behaviour or until further arrangement, Thomas Parefay, who has long served the king in Ireland well and faithfully.

Letters for Roger Waspailly nominating Richard Krey, Thomas de Kingsedon and John de Putteneye his attorneys in Ireland for two years.

Protection with clause voluntus, until Michaelmas, for the following, going to Wales on the king’s service:—

- Walter de Wigeton.
- John le Estrauenge.
- Master Ralph le Sauser, king’s serjeant, going there with the king.

Simple protection, until 15 August, for Bernard de Suthampton, his men and ships.

Protection and safe-conduct for Master Hardician de Sancto Laurencio, primatevisius of Milan, papal chaplain, and friar John de Derlington, and their households and the deputy collectors appointed by them in various dioceses, deputed by the Pope as collectors of the tenth in aid of the Holy Land.