1278.

Membrane 25—cont.

Tower of London.

Jan. 10. Grant in pursuance of the late statute touching the usuries and the penalties of the Jewry, that Mos-eus son of Leo, Jew, of Warwick, may carry on lawful business in the realm, and that his debtors bound to him by writings or other lawful ways, and for the payment of merchandise and other things, be distrained by the justices for the custody of the Jews.

Jan. 10. Letters for Ralph, abbot of Conches, in Normandy, nominating John le Alemant and William Osbern his attorneys for three years.

Jan. 11. Grant to the Friars Preachers, commorant in London, in aid of the changing of their houses in that city, of the king's alms called deodands, and which should belong to the king in the next eyres, so that they may receive the same by the hands of the justices in their first eyres for the three years after the last eyre, for the construction of their said houses.

Jan. 10. Testification that by the rolls of the chancery of Henry III. that that king, at the instance of Edward I. pardoned John le Whelwrychte of Teukesbiry for the death of Thomas le Poleter; on testimony that the said John has lost his letters of pardon.

Jan. 11. Pardon to John Lestrango, king's yeoman, of 200l. debts wherein he is bound at the Exchequer for the debts of John his father and ancestors.

Jan. 8. Acceptance of a grant by Henry III. to Roger, bishop of Norwich, that he might make his will so that the executors of his will should have free administration thereof; but the executors are first to find sufficient security to answer for his debts at the Exchequer.

Jan. 8. Protection with clause volumus, until Midsummer, for Peter de Monte Forti, going beyond seas.

Jan. 8. The like for Edmund, the king's brother.

Jan. 8. The like, for one year, for Richard Waldeshef, going with the said Edmund.

Membrane 24.

Jan. 10. Letters for the said Edmund, going beyond seas, nominating Richard Fokeram and Hugh de Vienna his attorneys for one year.

Tower of London.

Jan. 18. The like for Robert de Thurvill, master of the Knights Templars in England, going beyond seas, nominating brothers Thomas de la Fenue and William de Medburn until a year after Midsummer.

Tower of London.

Jan. 10. The like for Angelinus Basset, nominating Richard de Aston until Whitsunday.

Jan. 10. The like for Robert de Wynchelse, going beyond seas, nominating Henry de Winchelse, his brother, and William de Leghton for three years.

Jan. 10. Mandate to Guncelin de Badelesmere, justice of Chester, to deliver to Leonius son of Leonius, king's clerk, the office of the chamberlainship of Chester, to which he has been appointed during pleasure, on condition that he apply all the issues of the county of Chester brought there to the king's works of the abbey of Vale Royal; and the justice is to deliver to him the said issues from Michaelmas last.