1279.

The Ascension, 5 Edward I. by the hands of the above Orlandinus and Frederick de Luka, merchants of Lucca, 6l. 3s. 9d.

Ash Wednesday, 5 Edward I. by the hands of Giles de Garderoba, keeper of the Tower of London, and Reiner Magiar[i], merchant of Lucca, 1,836l.

Grant to Gregory de Rokesle and Orlandinus de Podio, keepers of the exchange of London and Canterbury, that allowance be made to them in their account at the Exchequer of all reasonable expenses incurred by them in the provision of the necessaries of the said exchange whether in moneyers or workers.

Presentation of Master Thomas de Edburbiri to the church of Cestreton, in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the priory of Kenilworth.

Safe-conduct, until Michaelmas, for Odin de Wask, merchant of Gene, going beyond seas.

Licence at the instance of Eleanor the king's consort until the end of the next parliament for Stephen de Cornhull, citizen and merchant of London, and Roger le Escot, merchant, and their fellows, to sell the cloths which they have in the realm at present and their own cloths which they shall import into it before Easter next, notwithstanding the late prohibition of cloths not of the right measure.

The like for the citizens and merchants of London.

Pardon, for a fine of 13s. 4d., to Walter de Haneberwe for taking a buck in the forest of Wychewode.

Mandate to Matthew de Columbariis, taker of the king's wines at Southampton and his successors, to deliver yearly a tun of wine of the right price to the abbot and convent of King's Beaulieu, for the celebration of mass in the church there, formerly granted to them by Henry III., the king having, at the instance of R. bishop of Bath and Wells, the chancellor, granted that they shall have the same yearly without having to obtain a special letter or any other mandate from the king.

Letters for David, archbishop of Cashel, nominating Gilbert son of Matthew his attorney in Ireland for two years.

Writ de intendendo directed to the tenants of Shrewsbury abbey for John de Dreyton, one of the monks elected to be abbot.

Mandate to the sheriff of Salop to restore the temporalities.

Mandate to Bartholomew de Castello, in pursuance of a mandate to him to deliver to Gregory de Rokesle, mayor of London, and the merchants of Lucca, commorant in London, the office of the exchange of London and Canterbury, to deliver to them the whole of the money arising therefrom for the time that it was in his custody, for them to answer for the same at the Exchequer.

Mandate to all bailiffs to arrest the goods and merchandise of merchants or others of the bishopric of Bremen, coming within their power or district, and to retain them until satisfaction shall have been made to Bartholomew Cloket, William son of Benedict, John le Mazun and Hugh his brother, merchants of Hertepol, for the loss of goods and merchandise lately stolen from them by certain persons of that bishopric when they lately went there to trade.