1280.

Membrane 19—cont.

of the order of the Holy Sepulchre of Warwick, which is opposite St. Clements without the Bar of the New Temple, London, whenever he comes to London.

Licence for the abbot and convent of Keynsham to enclose with a stone wall a several pasture belonging to them near Keynsham called Wynterleye, within the chase of Bristol, and to make it a rabbit warren.

Mandate to the men of Ireland to permit Stephen Brandan to use and enjoy throughout Ireland the same liberties and customs as others in Ireland, who are Englishmen, use and enjoy, since it appears by letters patent sealed in Ireland, which the king has inspected, that he is, though born in Ireland, a pure Englishman and a faithful subject.

May 18. Letters for the prior of Llanthony Prima in Wales, staying in England, nominating brother Nicholas de Ros and Stephen Banzan his attorneys in Ireland for three years.

May 25. Grant to Eleanor the king's mother, of the custody, during the minority of the heirs, of the lands and heirs of Jordan le Forester, tenant in chief, with their marriage.

Exemption to Roger de la Ryvere, for two years from Michaelmas, from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, or from being made sheriff or other bailiff.

Letters for Robert de Turvilla, master of the Knights Templars in England, going beyond seas, nominating brothers Robert de Scrop and William de Medburn his attorneys until a year after Midsummer. By K.

The like for Millicent de Monte Alto, for two years in Ireland.

Simple protection for two years for the said Millicent.

Membrane 18.

May 19. Commission of oyer and terminer to Gregory de Rokesle and Henry le Waleys as to the plaint of the abbot of Bittlesden touching trespasses and injuries done to him in his house in London by Master Robert de Lindeseye, Gilbert his brother and John de Newenton.

Membrane 17.

May 24. Grant to the good men of Kermerdyn of murage for eight years from the Ascension, 8 Edward I.

The like to the good men of Kardygan.

May 26. Acquittance to Walter de Huntelye for taking, by order of Edmund, count of Champagne, the king's brother, to the use of Eleanor (sic), queen of Navarre, his consort, sixteen bucks, one stag, three roebucks, and one boar in the forest of Dene.

May 26. Mandate to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer in pursuance of the following regulations [for the maintenance of the House of Converts, London]. Whereas the king believes that the conversion of Jewish depravity to the Catholic faith would specially be to the increase of faith and worship of the name of Christ, he therefore, in order that those who have already turned from their blindness to the light of the Church may be strengthened in the firmness of their faith, and those who still persist in their error may more willingly and readily turn to the grace of the faith, has taken measures, under divine guidance, to provide healthfully for their