

1280.

MEMBRANE 19d.[April 24.
Bristol.]

The like to John Bek and William de Wilegheby, on complaint by William le Warde of Skidebrok that Peter Galle, John his son, Robert Bunting, Peter son of Robert de Saltfleteby and Robert Miry assaulted him at Skidebrok, co. Lincoln.

May 10.
Windsor.

The like to William de Brompton and Elias de Bekingham, who are to examine, together with the mayor and sheriffs of London, certain articles touching a plea as to which doubts exist in the hustings of London by writ of right between Peter Man and Emma his wife and Elias de Hertford tenant, touching a message in London.

*MEMBRANE 17d.*May 20.
Westminster.

The like to Ralph de Hengham and Andrew de Estleye touching an appeal which Margery, late the wife of John Hathewy in the Bench against Ralph de Caretter, Robert de Ruyton and William, prior of Nonneeton for the death of her husband.

The like to Ralph de Hengham and Elias de Bekingham to examine, together with the mayor and sheriffs of London, and correct the record and process of a suit in the hustings of London wherein John de Berchampsted impleaded by writ of right John de Northampton touching two messuages and four shops in London, whereupon the said John de Northampton vouched to warranty William son of Henry, who likewise vouched to warranty John son of Ingram, who produced a deed by which he said that one Matilda his grandmother (whose heir he was) was enfeoffed by the said John de Berchampsted, who alleged that the said deed was obtained by the fraud of his mother while he was a minor and in her custody; whereupon the said parties put themselves on an inquisition which, as is alleged by the said John de Berchampsted, was improperly conducted by the said mayor and sheriff, who, without examining certain articles as to which doubts existed, gave judgment against him.

MEMBRANE 16d.[May 27.
Westminster.]

The like to Master Thomas de Sodington as to a contention between Isabella de Fortibus, countess of Albemarle, and Edmund, earl of Cornwall, touching the wood of Suyndon, which the said countess asserted to pertain to her manor of Harewod, and to have been usurped by Richard, sometime king of Almain, father of the said earl (and whose heir he is), upon Margery de Ripariis, grandmother, and Baldwin, earl of Devon, brother of the said countess, and to be unjustly detained by the said earl of Cornwall; the said parties having consented before the king that the said contention should be heard and determined by the said Master Thomas.

The like to Roger Loveday and Robert de Ludham touching the persons who broke by night the doors and fences of the park of Richard de Breuse of Stradbroke, co. Suffolk, hunted therein and carried away deer.

Commission to Roger de Sprengheoes to enquire touching vagabonds, in the counties of Salop and Stafford.

*MEMBRANE 15d.*June 3.
Westminster.

The like to Thomas de Normanvill, Thomas Folejaumbe and Ralph de Arnehale touching an appeal which Hugh son of Alan de Beltoft brings in the county of Nottingham against Robert son of John son of Alan de Bekingham, Nicholas de Swaleweclyve, Roger le Keu of Beltoft, Walter de Beltoft and Herbert de Beltoft for the death of Geoffrey de Fulholm, his kinsman.