

1280.

Membrane 29—cont.

beginning with next Easter, the king having assigned the said farm to her for life, in part suppletion of her dower.

Grant to the sheriff of Middlesex, Michael de Norhampton, and the good men of the county of Middlesex of pontage in aid of their bridge of Braynford, for three years from the Purification, 9 Edward I.

Grant to the abbot and convent of Westminster that the house in their churchyard—which stretches from the gate thereof by the wall towards the belfry and which the abbot has built in order that the issues thereof at the fairs of the two feasts of St. Edward and at all other times may be applied to the increase of the support of the light at the great altar and the shrine of St. Edward—shall be quit and free for ever from all livery of stewards, marshals, and other ministers of the king, so that no person for the future shall lodge therein without licence of the said abbot and convent or of the sacristan of the said house.

Dec. 5. Grant to John de Knovill of the gwestva (westwa) of Leswen entire Westminster. with all its appurtenances, within the commote of Anhunok, to wit, the rhandir (rhandir) of Bodlawerneth, the two rhandirs of Henveneu, the rhandir of Nauchwedaf and the rhandir of Leswen, in fee-simple, to hold by the service of one barded horse at the castle of Lampader.

Dec. 9. John de Stok and Ralph de Harewold, canons of Dunstaple, bringing news
Tower of of the cession of William their prior, have letters of licence to elect.
London. Simple protection, for seven years, for Master James de Sancto Georgio.

Dec. 5. Grant to Nicholas de Stapleton of a messuage and five bovates of land Westminster. in Westhalsey, lately recovered by the king by a judgment of the justices of the Bench against Robert de Crepping, to hold in fee-farm from the crown at a rent of 40s.

Licence for the prior and canons of the hospital of St. Mary without Bishopsgate, London, to buy from William Godchep and Matilda his wife a messuage in the suburb of London, also to receive two marks of rent in London which Roger Beyvin left to them in his will, and one mark of rent in the same city of the gift of Geoffrey de Catenham, and to hold the same in mortmain.

Grant to Alice de Luyton and to her men and tenants in Hertwell and Little Hameden, as well bondmen as free, that, for her life, both she and they be quit of suit which they owe to the king's court of the honor of Peverell of Haddestok and from coming to the view of frank pledge at the same court, and that the breweresses of her tenure in the towns aforesaid shall not be amerced for trespass or breach of the assise of ale in the court aforesaid, but in her own court, and that she shall receive the amercements; with quittance to her, for life, of 8s. a year due to the king for her view of frank pledge and the arrears thereof; on condition that her heirs or assigns, and her men and tenements aforesaid after her decease shall do the said suit and come to the view of frank pledge at the court aforesaid, and her heirs or assigns shall pay the 8s. a year aforesaid, as used to be done.

Mandate to Gregory de Rockesle and Orlandinus de Podio, keepers of the Exchange of London, to pay out of the king's moneys therein to Bouroncinus Walterii and his fellows, merchants of Lucca, 200 marks for the 200 marks owed by John Giffard of Brimmesfeld to the said merchants, and which the king has granted to him.

Dec. 8. Grant, at the instance of Patrick de Cadurcis, their lord, to the bailiffs and Tower of good men of Kedwelly of murage for five years from Christmas, 9 Edward I.
London.