

1281.

Membrane 26d—cont.

of the said town and besieged them almost a day, took away a writ of the king from Almaric de Ledes, king's serjeant, who was sent to Stanore by the sheriff of Kent to execute the same on behalf of the said abbot, burned two mills of the said abbey at Heppelfete and Stanore, dug into a sea wall of the said abbot between Clyvesende and Stanore, protecting from the sea his manor of Menstre, and took away the stone and sand thereof, rescued certain beasts found doing damage to the said abbot at Menstre and Stanhore and certain beasts of men of the said abbot of Stanhore, seized by Richard Molyn, Richard de Chileham, John le Bedel and Robert le Sumeter by order of the said abbot for certain trespasses done to him, and wounded the said Robert.

The like to Richard de Holebrok and William de Redham touching the persons who carried away part of a whale which had been cast ashore at Brauncestre, co. Norfolk, as the wreck of the abbot of Ramsey.

Jan. 18. Shouldham. The like to Stephen de Penecestre and Robert de Scothou, on complaint by Alan Attemede and Jul[iana] his wife that John le Baker of Romen[ale] assaulted her at Romen[ale], co. Kent, so that she miscarried.

MEMBRANE 25d.

Feb. 1. Rising. The like to Roger de Norwod and Gregory de Rokesle, mayor of the city of London, on complaint by Thomas le Flaouer of London touching the persons who waylaid him between the hospital of Clerkenwell and the said city and twisted his hood round his neck, threw him down, beat and wounded him.

The like to Walter de Wimborne and Master William de Marchia as to a contention between the rich and poor burgesses of Yarmouth touching certain liberties of buying and selling in the port of Yarmouth merchandise coming by ship, whether at the time of fair or at other times.

The like to William de Saham and Master Thomas de Sodington touching the persons who broke the parks of John de Warena, earl of Surrey, of Wakefeud and Heitefeud, co. York, hunted therein and carried away deer.

MEMBRANE 24d.

Feb. 21. Windsor. Association of Ralph de Hengham with Stephen de Penecestre and John de Cobeham in a commission of oyer and terminer touching an assault upon Henry de Appeldrefeld, as on Membrane 26d.

Commission to the constable of the castle of Gloucester and Walter de Strichele to enquire by jury of that county what priors, abbots and others hold at farm weirs in the Severn belonging to William de Valencia, and divert and alter them from their old and customary state, and to restore them to their former condition.

Commission of oyer and terminer to William Bagot and Master A. de Botindon touching the persons who entered the wood of Master G. de Hasphal, keeper of the wardrobe of Eleanor, the king's consort, belonging to his prebend of the king's free chapel of Wlvrenehampton, co. Stafford, and cut down and carried away his trees growing in the said wood, Feb. 23. Windsor. The like to Hugh son of Otto and J. de Kirkeby touching trespasses done to the mayor and bailiffs of Oxford and their men, and to the sheriff and the king's ministers by the abbess of Godstow and her men.