The first is a poem in French, probably written in 1245. The second is an

History of Hector Boece; by WILLIAM STEWART. Vols. I.-III.
Edited by W. B. TONDON, Barrister-at-Law. 1858.

This is a metrical translation of a Latin Prose Chronicle, written in the first half of the 16th century. The narrative begins with the earliest legends and ends with the death of James I. of Scotland, and the "evil ending of the traitors that slew him." The peculiarities of the Scottish dialect are well illustrated in this version.
