

1282.

Membrane 11—cont.

The like to Richard Curteys for the death of Ralph Cole, as it appears by the testimony of Salomon de Roff and his fellows, justices in eyre at Exeter, that he killed him by misadventure.

The like to Thomas Cole for the death of Ralph de Attehole, as it appears by the same testimony that he killed him in self-defence.

The like to Thomas Burnel for the death of Geoffrey son of Walter de la Hoke, as it appears by the same testimony that he killed him in self-defence.

The like to John de Benges, in the prison of Ipswich for the death of Roger Fairman, as it appears by inquisition before Richard de Holebroc and Robert de Bosco that he killed him in self-defence.

May 19.
Worcester.

The like to John de Saham for the death of Thomas Harding, as it appears by the testimony of Roger de Toftes and his fellows, justices appointed to deliver Norwich gaol, that he killed him in self-defence.

Simple protection, until All Saints, for Richard de Merlowe.

Licence for the abbot and convent of Evesham to appropriate in mortmain, by demise of Robert de Bruly, the tenant, a messuage and two virgates of land of their own fee in Kynewarton.

Grant to the mayor and good men of Bristol that they may, for two years, make collections amongst themselves according to their means, by the oath of good and lawful men, whenever the affairs of the community require it; but that the said collections and the tallages levied upon the rest of the community shall be placed under common custody, with power to the mayor to compel persons to be sworn for this purpose when necessary: as it appears that the poor of Bristol have been frequently heavily tallaged upon sudden emergencies affecting the affairs of the town.

Grant to Adam le Botiller of the custody, during minority of the heir, of land to the yearly value of ol. 16s. 11*d.* in Barton, late of Robert de Crelle, tenant in chief; in exchange for the ten marks yearly, which Alice de Dine was lately ordered to pay to him for the custody of the lands late of Henry de Dyne, deceased, tenant in chief.

Mandate to Thomas de Normanvill, escheator beyond Trent, to make livery of the same.

Protection, with clause volumus, for Henry son of Tancard de la Roche, staying in England.

May 24.
Hartlebury.

Acquittance to G. bishop of Worcester for the payment, on Saturday the vigil of Holy Trinity, by the hands of brother Thomas le Rus, monk of St. Peter's, Gloucester, and William de Berners, collectors of the fifteenth, into the wardrobe at Hertlebury to Master William de Luda, keeper of the wardrobe, of 8*ol.* for the fifteenth incident upon the arch-deaconry of Gloucester.

Simple protection, until All Saints, for Owen son of Griffith son of Madoc, parson of the church of Bankbiry.

Licence, after inquisition ad quod damnum on the testimony of Ralph de Hengham and William de Brampton and others, for Henry le Waleys, mayor, and the commonalty of London, to build upon and let to rent for the maintenance of London Bridge, the following void plots, to wit, one near the church-yard wall of Wolchurich on the north side, in the parish of Wolchurich; another near the churchyard-wall of St. Paul's church on the east side between the gate of St. Augustin and Westchepe (vicum de Westchep'), whereof one half lies in the parish of St. Augustin and the other in the parish of St. Michael le Quern (ad bladum); another near the churchyard-wall of St. Paul's on the north side between the