

MEMBRANE 7.

1282.

Aug. 6.
Rhuddlan.

Commission of oyer and terminer to John de Reygate and G. Aguil[on], on complaint by Edmund de Mortuo Mari, that Henry de la Sale, Nicholas son of Elena le Orfevre, John son of Walter le Orfevre of Clifton, Gilbert son of Agnes de Clifton, Richard Calf, Richard le Pestur, John de Rome, John son of Henry de Clifton, Robert Let, Hugh Let, John Tolle, and William de Wileys of Clifton, rescued certain cattle, which his servants, John de la Doune, Simon de Sapy and Thomas de Sapy were, by his orders, impounding at Clifton by York, at night, and wounded and maltreated his said servants.

Aug. 13.
Rhuddlan.

The like to Edmund, earl of Cornwall, touching the persons who broke the park of Robert de Pinkeny at Cristeshale, co. Essex, burned the paling, and hunted and carried away deer there.

Aug. 13.
Rhuddlan.

Association of John de Lithegraines in the room of Ranulph de Dakre, at present beyond seas on the king's affairs, to hold the pleas of the forest of Pickering, with Alexander de Kirketon.

Aug. 16.
Rhuddlan.

Commission of oyer and terminer to S. de Roff' and W. de Braib[oe], touching the persons who broke the houses of John de Exon', clerk, at Wonford Seyntesedefunte and Hevedwell, co. Devon, when the said John was under the king's protection and on his service in Wales, carried away his goods and imprisoned his servants.

MEMBRANE 6.

Aug. 11.
Rhuddlan.

Writ de intendendo, directed to the tenants of the bishopric of Winchester, in favour of Master John de Punteys, the king having accepted his collation thereto by the Pope, and restored the temporalities, after fealty taken.

Mandate to William de Sancto Claro and William de Hamelton to restore the temporalities.

Simple protection for the men and burgesses of Drogheda.

Safe-conduct, until Michaelmas, for the men of Nicholas Fermebaud, taking his cattle from the county of Chester to that of Bedford and staying there.

Safe-conduct, until All Saints, for the daughter of G. count of Flanders and marquess of Namur, passing through England on her way to her marriage with the king's nephew Alexander, eldest son of the king of Scotland. [Fœdera.]

Aug. 15.
Rhuddlan.

Protection, in Ireland, with clause volumus, for one year, for William de Valenc', staying in England on the king's service.

Receipt to Bouruncinus and Reiner de Luk' and their fellows, merchants of Lucca, for 3,000*l.* paid into the wardrobe at Chester on Sunday before the feast of St. Laurence, 10 Edward I., by the hands of Eliseus de Luk', their clerk. By bill of the wardrobe.

The like for 500*l.*, which the same have sent from Ireland, paid by the hands of Justorus Damasei of Lucca. By bill of the wardrobe.

Aug. 9.
Rhuddlan.

Presentation of Geoffrey Spirong to the church of Wilenhal', in the king's gift by reason of the late voidance of the see of Winchester.

Aug. 16.
Rhuddlan.

Protection, with clause volumus, for one year, in Ireland for:—

Eustace le Poer, staying in England.

Thomas de la Roche, staying in England.

Peter le Poher, staying in Wales by the king's command.