Membrane 8—cont.

June 4.

Safe-conduct, until Martilmas, for John Mazon, king’s merchant of Gascony, going to Scotland.

The like, until Easter, for Raymond de Sancto Clemente, king’s merchant of Gascony, trading.

Letters for Master Ralph le Waleys, archdeacon of Wilts, going beyond seas, nominating Robert de Luthes and Ralph le Brun his attorneys for two years.

The like for:—

Albricus de Roseriis, parson of the church of Preston, going beyond seas, nominating Giles le Quiltepointer and William de Hereford for one year.

Roger Bernard, going beyond seas on the king’s service, nominating John de Haverhill and John de Stutton until Michaelmas.

Bindus de Pary, merchant of Florence, going beyond seas, nominating Facins Galgani of Florence for one year.

The abbot of St. George’s, Baskervill, nominating brothers John de Campis and Robert de Ponte Audomari for three years.

Warin, abbot of Bewley (Regalis loci), going beyond seas, nominating Henry de Erinsford and Robert de Chirtton, monks, until Easter.

June 20.

Safe-conduct, until Martilmas, for Richard de Eton, king’s clerk, going to Scotland on the affairs of John de Maszon, king’s merchant of Gascony.

The like, until Easter, for Arnald Barache and Peter de Columbariis, going to Norway with merchandise of William Barache.

June 18.

Commission to William de Saham, Nicholas le Gras, William de Middelton, and Master Henry de Bray, to go on a general eyre into the Isle of Ely during the present voidance of the see, and to hold the pleas in like manner as is customary in the time of the bishops.

June 20.

Letters for Isabella, late the wife of Walter de Swynesheved, staying in England, nominating Walter de Swynesheved and Thomas le Ercedekne her attorneys in Ireland for two years.

The like for:—

Richard de Illeston, going beyond seas, nominating Walter de Illeston for one year.

John de Hastyn’, going beyond seas, nominating Richard de Bray and Henry Trone for one year.

June 28.

The abbot of Bynedon, going to his general chapter, nominating brothers Robert Squirel and Geoffrey Skury until Christmas.

Peter, abbot of Port St. Mary, Dunbrochy, going beyond seas, nominating John de Radeleigh, his fellow monk, in England for one year. The same Peter, nominating the said John and William Deyncurt in Ireland for one year.

Roger Bygot, earl of Norfolk and marshal of England, staying in England, nominating Roger de RyvalT and David de la Walays in Ireland for two years.

Ralph Pippard, staying in England, nominating Richard de Atrio Dei and John Sturmyn in Ireland for two years.

June 28.

Walter de Ardert, canon of Ardert, bringing news of the death of John, late bishop, has letters of licence to elect for the dean and chapter.

Power to S. bishop of Waterford, justiciary of Ireland, to restore the temporalities thereof to the person elected.

July 8.

Letters for Master Henry de Cornub’, canon of Lichfield, going beyond seas, nominating Walter de Swafham, chaplain, and Robert de la Forde his attorneys for two years.