1287.

Membrane 12—cont.

Gilbert parson of the church of Treenge, staying beyond seas, nominating William le Sumeter and Richard de Dagenhale for one year. W. bishop of Eml, staying in England, nominating Walter Uncle and Richard de Irecestre, in Ireland, until the Purification.

April 1. Westminster.

April 3. Westminster.

April 10. Westminster.

April 11. Westminster.

April 20. Westminster.

April 3. Westminster.

April 10. Westminster.

April 11. Westminster.

April 20. Westminster.

Gilbert parson of the church of Treenge, staying beyond seas, nominating William le Sumeter and Richard de Dagenhale for one year. W. bishop of Eml, staying in England, nominating Walter Uncle and Richard de Irecestre, in Ireland, until the Purification.

Richard de Ewell, going beyond seas, nominating William de Gysors until Michaelmas.

Hugh le Despenser, going beyond seas, nominating Richard de Lughteburgh and Roger de Biterwyk until Michaelmas.

William de Stopham, going beyond seas, nominating Alan de Roff until Michaelmas.

William de Windis', going beyond seas by the king's command, nominating Richard de Sutton until All Saints.

John de Wytham, chaplain, staying beyond seas with the king, nominating Peter de Dytton until Easter.

Ralph de Shepee, staying in England, nominating Robert Corby and Robert Malori, in Ireland, for two years.

The prior and convent of Derley, sending news by Simon de Derby, sacristan, and Robert de Melburn, canon there, of the death of Henry de Keccheleston, their abbot, have letters of licence to elect.

Safe-conduct until Holy Trinity for Master William le Paneter, sending men to Gascony with a ship laden with oats.

Protection, with clause volumus, for—

Hugh de Turbevill engaged by the king's command in the munition of the castle of Bere in Wales until All Saints.

Robert de Staundon, serving the office of sheriff in the county of Meroyuinithe, in Wales, until All Saints.

William de Leyburn, engaged by the king's command in the munition of the castle of Cruk in Wales, until All Saints.

William, minister of the house of the brethren of the order of Holy Trinity, Eston, and of their house of St. Mary Magdalene, by Hertford, going beyond seas until Midsummer.

Safe-conduct, until St. Peter ad Vincula, for Raymond de Sancto Clemente, merchant of Gascony, trading.

Protection, with clause volumus, until a fortnight after Midsummer, for Walter de Windesore, going beyond seas by the king's command.