Commission to Walter de Helion, Richard de la Ryvere, Roger de Lokintone and Richard de la More to deliver the gaol of Gloucester of Bruning le Heyward, who was put in exigent after the last eyre in the county of Gloucester for the death of two men unknown at Hameswell, and has since surrendered.

The like, to Ralph de Sandwico, W. de Stirch[esle], and G. de Rokesle, to deliver Neugate gaol of Juliana de Gypeswyco, who was put in exigent after the last eyre in the county of Hertford for a trespass against the king's peace, and has since surrendered.

Membrane 4.

Sept. 8. Letters for the abbot of Fountains, going beyond seas, nominating Thomas de Appilton and Richard de Pykehal his attorneys until Martilmas.

The like for:
John de Sancto Johanne, gone beyond seas with the king, nominating Thomas de Basing, clerk, until the Purification.

Amicia, late the wife of John de Cormayles, going on pilgrimage to Pontigny, nominating John de Parys and Thomas de Clutton for one year.

Matilda de Clare, countess of Gloucester, staying in England, nominating William de Incynghefeld and Thomas Dunfert for two years.

Oct. 8.
Robert de Brus, earl of Carrick, staying in Scotland, nominating John de Hatfeld and Michael de Bodechell for one year.

Oct. 15.
Walter de Wymb', precentor of the church of St. Patrick, Dublin, staying in England on the king's service, nominating Nicholas de Chiltham in Ireland for three years.

Oct. 17.
John Passelew, staying in England, nominating Hugh de Streyle and Robert de Ryplingham in Ireland for one year.

Oct. 18.
Agnes de Vescy, staying in England, nominating Hugh de Streyle and Robert Hod in Ireland for two years.

Sept. 8.
The sub-prior and convent of Frithelstok, sending news by Alexander de Thoriton, canon thereof, of the death of Thomas Leaute, late prior, have letters of licence to elect.

Oct. 18.
Letters for Hugh de Streleye of Mentemor, going to Ireland, nominating Walter de Mentemor and Philip Sprigurnel his attorneys for one year.

The like for:
Robert Segre, going beyond seas on the king's service, nominating Henry le Acatur and Walter de la Chaumbre until Whitsunday.

Sept. 17.
Promise to Roger le Bygot, earl of Norfolk and marshal of England, that nothing done by him or his men at the behest of Edmund, earl of Cornwall, in the suppression of the rebellion of Rees son of Mereduc, in Wales, shall be to the prejudice of his marshalcy.

Sept. 15.
Protection, with clause volumus, for:
William de la Haye, clerk, going beyond seas, for one year.

Sept. 20.
William de Valencia, staying beyond seas on the king's service, for one year.

Sept. 23.
John de Heddishoure, going beyond seas as the king's messenger until a fortnight after St. Hilary.