Protection, with clause volumus, for:

- Richard de Exonia, staying in England, in Ireland for two years.
- Henry de Tydolveshyde, going to the court of Rome, until a year after Christmas.

Grant to Eustace de Hacche, for a fine of 40 marks, of the marriage of the heir or heirs of Roger de la Hide, tenant in chief.

Ratification of the presentation by Eleanor, the king's mother, of Sir Robert de Stok, chaplain, to the church of Wycliffe, in the diocese of Winchester, void by the resignation of Raymond de Laudona, and in her gift by reason of Aquila being in her hands.

The like of the presentation by the same Eleanor of John de Scardeburg to the church of Spofford, in the diocese of York, void by the death of Master Hugh de Evesham, late rector, and in her gift by reason of her custody of the land and heir of Henry de Percy, tenant in chief of the late king.

Simple protection, for three years, for Master Maurice son of Stephen de Blaunchevill.

Protection, with clause volumus, for five years, in Ireland, for Master Richard de Blaunchevill, parson of the churches of Blaunchevill, Douenachmore, Clonhussell and Arclo, staying in England.

Exemption, during pleasure, to John le Blake, attending to the collection of the new custom on wools, wool-fells and hides in the port of Shorham, from assizes, juries or recognisances.

Dispensation from Nicholas [IV.] for the marriage of Edward son of the king with Margaret daughter of the king of Norway and heir of the realm of Scotland. [Fædera.]

Royal letter to Eric, king of Norway, begging him to send his daughter to England without delay. [Fædera.]

Royal letter to the same, constituting Anthony, bishop of Durham, plenipotentiary for the said marriage. [Fædera.]

Memorandum: These two letters, although they are of the above dates, were enrolled here, because they relate to the affair of Norway; nevertheless, the latter letter is enrolled in Patent Roll, April, 17* Edward I.

Notification to the justiciary of Ireland, or the person supplying his place, and to others, of the king's licence for John de Benteleye, king's yeoman, to come and go to the parts of Offaly as often as he likes to treat for the liberation of John de Fuleburn, lately taken prisoner in Offaly in a fight with the king's army by C'alnak Oconehor and his accomplices, rebels, provided that the justiciary is satisfied the said John de Benteleye is not a consenting party to the evil deeds of the said Irishmen.