Membrane 15—cont.

Inspeximus and confirmation of a chirograph between Eleanor, the king's mother, and the master of the monastery of Hornchurch, dated the day of the Invention of the Cross, A.D. 1274, whereby she grants that, in lieu of paying into the Exchequer the 46s. of yearly rent due from him for life for certain lands in the manor of Havering, part of her dower, he shall find a chaplain to celebrate divine service in the chapel of the said manor, where he shall dwell always, receiving the said 46s. with other obventions of the chapel, to wit, on Monday and Wednesday for the souls of the king and all faithful departed, on Tuesday and Saturday the service of the Blessed Virgin, on Thursday that of the Holy Ghost, on Friday that of the Holy Cross, on Sunday that of the Trinity, so that in every mass mention be made of the soul of Henry III.

Protection, with clause volumus, for:—
Nicholas de Stalham, going to Ireland, for two years.
Westminster.

William le Fiz Gley, yeoman of Joan de Acre, countess of Gloucester, staying in England, for one year in Ireland.

Mandate to Nicholas de Clerc, king's clerk, the treasurer of Ireland, to deliver to Richard Guidichionis and his fellows of the society of the Ricardi of Lucca residing in Ireland, who have passed their accounts wherein the amounts were included at Easter before the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer, the receipts in his hands for the following sums received by the said merchants from him, to wit, 2,698l. 5s. 7d. of the issues of Ireland before Michaelmas, 17 Edward I.; 1,570l. 10s. 6d. of the issues for the terms of Hilary, Easter and St. John the Baptist, 17 Edward I.; 1,480l. 14s. 5½d. of both the said issues and new custom for the said year.

Protection, with clause volumus, for:—
Robert de Bree, citizen of Dublin.
Langley.

Mandate to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer, Dublin, to associate with themselves some of the Irish council whenever required by Walter de la Haye, escheator of Ireland, to view and allow his expenses for his custody of castles, manors and heirs in the king's hands, of difficult marches, for attacks on rebels, and in going and staying with a great body of armed men in the said marches, castles, manors and lands, whenever required, for money spent in the munition thereof, and for horse and foot for the king's defence, and for horses lost; and having regard to the robes of the escheator and his arrears of wages: as the king is unwilling that he should have to come to him in person, or send his messengers and servants so frequently to claim these allowances, at great risk and expense.

Grant to Robert le Sauser, king's serjeant, of the custody, during minority of the heirs, of the lands late of William Quyntyn, tenant in chief, with wardships, reliefs, escheats, dowers, &c., and the marriage of the said heirs.
