Sept. 5. Woodstock.
Gerard de Caumvill, going to Ireland, nominating William de Caumvill and Thomas de Caumvill for two years.
The abbot of Aunay, staying beyond seas, nominating Albinus called Infernus and Robert called Custos for three years.

Sept. 10. Amesbury.
Thomas de Chabbenore, staying in England, nominating William de Arundel and William de Morton for three years in Ireland.
John de Burleye, staying in England, nominating William de Arundel for three years in Ireland.
Geoffrey de Caumvile, going to Ireland, nominating William le Graunt and William Poleyn for two years.

The abbot of Montebourg, staying beyond seas, nominating Richard de Crienciis and Anketil Turgot for three years.
The abbot of Bruerne, going to his general Cistercian chapter, nominating Alan de Shesnecote and Richard de Ledeburn, his fellow monks, until All Saints.

John de Sancto Johanne, going beyond seas on the king's special affairs, nominating William de Basinges and Ralph de Hoo, chaplain, until Midsummer.

Oct. 3. Bristol.
Hugh de Turbervill and Joan his wife, staying in Wales, nominating Roger de Verdun for two years.

The abbess of Fontevraud, staying beyond seas, nominating Henry de Edrinton and Adam Saffran for five years.
Ralph de Fichedorf, staying in England, nominating Jordan Lagheles for one year in Ireland.

Grant, for life, to Ralph de Rede, for long service to Eleanor, the king's mother, of the custody of the parks of Helewell and Stretton, with an allowance of 2d. a day from the bailiff there.
Mandate in pursuance to the bailiff.

Protection with clause volumus, for:
The abbot of Pipewell, going to his general Cistercian chapter, until All Saints.

Sept. 11. Amesbury.
Master William de Bomyne, going beyond seas, for one year.

Joan, late the wife of Theobald le Butiler, going to Ireland, for two years.

Sept. 17. Devizes.
John Carbonel, going beyond seas, for one year.
Philip de Say, clerk of Roger le Estraunge, going with him beyond seas, until a fortnight after Easter.

Sept. 20. Devizes.
John, archbishop of York, primate of England, going beyond seas, until a year after Martinmas.
John de Sancto Johanne, going beyond seas on the king's special affairs, until Midsummer.
Geoffrey de Geynevill, gone beyond seas, for one year.

Sept. 10. Amesbury.
Acquittance to Richard de la Linde, king's clerk, for the payment, 11 September, to Walter de Langeton, king's clerk, keeper of the wardrobe, of 400 marks in which he made fine with the king for trespasses alleged against him.

Sept. 11. Amesbury.
Inspeximus and confirmation of letters patent, dated Westminster, 10th February, 42 Henry III., being a grant to Walter, bishop of