year for seven years; and Master Henry de Bray, then escheator this side Trent, accordingly assigned him this manor during minority of the heir, charged with a yearly payment of 10l. for five years, theretofore granted to Cicely de Cleware in the said manor, and the king accepted that assignment. The heir having died three years before his majority, the king caused the said manor to be resumed into his hands; but, desiring to compensate the said William for the loss of those three years, has made the present grant.

Mandate to Malcolm de Harle, escheator this side Trent, to deliver to him the said manor, with the receipts since its resumption.

Oct. 12. Grant to Anian, bishop of St. Asaph, that he may freely make his will, and that his executors shall not be impeded in the due execution thereof.
