EDWARD I.

1295.

Licence for Ralph de Tony to assign to Robert son of Robert Tibotot, and his daughter as her marriage portion, and their heirs, land to the value of 100L a year in his manors of Newton and Stratford, co. Wilts, held by him in chief, and if there should be less than that value of land in those manors, the deficiency to be made up in his manor of Saham, likewise held in chief. By K., on the information of W. de Lang[eton].

March 1. Safe-conduct, until Michaelmas, for friar William de Gynesburgh [called William de Hothom in the margin], of the order of Minors, his household and goods, going with John de Wilton, his fellow, to their general chapter at Assisi.

The like, until Michaelmas, for Hugh de Manncestre, of the order of Preachers, his household and goods, going with Thomas de Jorz, prior of the friars of that order at Oxford. By p.s.

March 3. Power, at the supplication of Peter, the dean, and the chapter of Derry, to William de Oiddingesedes, justiciary of Ireland, or the person supplying his place, to give the royal assent to the election of Henry de Ardach, monk of the Cistercian order, whom they have elected to be their bishop in the room of Florence, deceased, the elect having first delivered to the justiciary letters patent of the dean and chapter made under their common seal according to the form of the transcript enclosed; and after the election has been canonically confirmed by the metropolitan of the place, he is to receive fealty in the king's name from the elect and to restore to him the temporalities, having first received from the elect letters patent sealed with his own seal and that of his chapter that this grace shall not be to the king's prejudice. By p.s.

March 6. Grant to Thomas de Asshebourne, king's clerk, of a prebend in the king's free chapel of Hastings, lately held by Robert Aylward, deceased. By p.s.

Mandate to the sheriff of Sussex to induct him into corporal possession.

March 11. John de Keinsington, canon of St. Bartholomew's, London, bringing news of the death of Hugh, prior of the same, has letters of licence to elect. Presentation of Thomas Bernard to the church of Newtown (Nova Villa), in the diocese of St. Asaph. By p.s.

March 18. Appointment of Thomas Colle, burgess of Shrewsbury, to the custody, during pleasure, of the seal for merchants' recognisances in that town, in the room of Henry Borreye, deceased, on condition that he execute his office in conjunction with Robert de Bukenhale, king's clerk, to whom the counter-seal is committed.

Mandate to all bailiffs to give effect to the king's late grant to Edmund the king's brother, to wit, that none of the king's ministers shall interfere in taking to the king's use the corn or victual of the said Edmund's men or tenants, but permit the said Edmund's officers to take them in due manner to his own use. By p.s.

March 22. Writ of aid, for one year, for Stephen Meu, sent by Roger de Insula, king's clerk, clerk of the great wardrobe, in charge of cloths, grocery (specceriam) and other things which the said Roger is sending to the king at divers places; and he is to have sufficient carriage at the king's cost.
