more noblemen from every country (patria) to come to the king in England, to St. Edmunds before Martilmas, with full powers to confer and treat, touching the state of the said counties and lands, and touching the completion of the marriage between the said count and Elizabeth the king's daughter, according to the agreements already made between the king and the said Florence. [Federa.]

Safe-conduct, until Christmas, for the king's envoys.

Sept. 16. Power to the said envoys to give, in the king's name, a safe-conduct for the representatives who come over. [Federa.]

Sept. 16. Safe-conduct, during pleasure, for the merchants of Holand, Seland and Friesland.

The like, during pleasure, for Hermann called 'Dusocop,' burgess of Hamburg: granted at the instance of the consuls of Hamburg.

The like, for the same period, for Domyn Johan of Ayro of Pontevedra (de Veteri Ponte) Martín de Seint Jame, and Martín Dedicy of Pontevedra, merchants, Peter Melyn of Pontevedra, John Martyn de Baiona of Minyore, Domyn Johan of Pontevedra, Domyn Peter of Pontevedra, Domyn Simon of Pontevedra, John Roduk of Neda, John Peris of Acclony, Peter Deden of Acclony, Salvatus de Veteri Ponte, Domyn Johan de Noya, and Peter de Veteri Ponte, sailors of a ship called the ship of St. Mary of Pontevedra of Spain.

Sept. 16. Grant, under certain conditions, to the prior and convent of Durham, in honour of St. Cuthbert, of 40L. a year at the Exchequer at Berwick, until the king or his heirs provide them with a competent ecclesiastical benefice of that value.

Vacated, because otherwise below.

Sept. 24. Mandate to Walter de la Haye, escheator in Ireland, to restore the temporalities of the bishopric of Clonfert to Robert, late monk of Christchurch, Canterbury, whom the Pope has preferred to be bishop in the room of John, late bishop, translated to be archbishop of Benevento.

Like letters are directed to John Wogan, justiciary of Ireland.

Writ de intendendo directed to the tenants of the see.

Sept. 23. Pardon, at the instance of Robert son of Roger, to Llewellin ab Inyan, a Welshman, for the death of Kenwrick ab Crathan, a Welshman.

Sept. 24. Presentation of Henry de Langeton to the chapel of St. James, Lelesseye, in the diocese of Norwich, in the king's gift by reason of the lands of William de Monte Caniso of Edwardeston, being in his hands.