

1297.

Membrane 12—cont.

John Engayne and the sheriff of Northampton and Roteland.
 Henry Tregoz and the sheriff of Surrey and Sussex.
 Robert Fiz Roger and the sheriff of Essex and Hertford.
 Reynald de Argentein and the sheriff of Cambridge and Huntindon.
 William de Leyburn and the sheriff of Kent.
 Henry Tieys and the sheriffs of Southampton.
 Geoffrey de Caunvill and the sheriffs of Cornewayll and Deveneshire.
 John de Lancastre and the sheriff of Lancaster.
 Reynaud de Grey in the county of Chester with the four cantreds.
 John de Havering in Norwales.
 William de Brehuse and Walter de Pederton in Westwales.

Memorandum that the said knights and sheriffs shall do the things above written according to the following articles:—

It is ordained that the bannerets and sheriffs assigned hereto in the counties take pledges of lay persons sufficient for the sums of the recognisances (les sommes reconues); and that clerks who cannot find lay pledges give their goods into the power of the sheriff to the amount of the grant which they shall make (baillent en le poer le visconte de lur chateus taunt com le graunt qil frount amontera), until they have paid.

And inasmuch as the business is more urgent than it was, there shall be taken from every prelate or parson or beneficed clerk to the amount of double the aid last granted to the king.

And the bannerets and sheriffs shall enrol the sums of the recognisances, and every name and the names of the personal pledges (plegges) or of the surety taken, so that the roll thereof be delivered to the Exchequer for the money to be levied.

And the bannerets and sheriffs shall make to every clerk thus entering into a recognizance a bill sealed with their seals addressed to the chancellor to have the king's protection and other suitable writs.
French. [Fœdera.]

Mandate to the coroners of the county of Surrey to deliver to Henry Tregoz and the sheriff of Surrey and Sussex two pairs of letters patents with the form enclosed, and to receive their oath in the king's name that they will faithfully perform their duty according to the said form.

The like directed to the coroners of the following counties to deliver the like to the following, and to receive their oath:—

Derby	-	-	{ Thomas de Furnyval. The sheriff of Derby.
Northampton	-	-	{ John Engayne. The sheriff of Northampton and Roteland.
Essex	-	-	{ Robert son of Roger. The sheriff of Essex and Hertford.
Middlesex	-	-	{ John le Bretun. The sheriff.
Kent	-	-	{ William de Leyburn. The sheriff.
Lancaster	-	-	{ John de Lancastre. The sheriff.

MEMBRANE 11.

March 3.
Clarendon.

Protection with clause volumus, for two years, for Master Thomas Cantok, chancellor of Ireland, going to Ireland on the king's service.