25 EDWARD I.—PART I.

Membrane 4—cont.

The king renders thanks to Donald son of Can, Gilie Michel McGethe, Maurice de Stubhill and all other faithful subjects for their late ready and willing service in the company of Thomas de Saunford in repelling disturbers of the peace and recapturing for the king castles which had been taken by these in those parts. The king prays them to continue faithful in their love towards him as vigorously as they have begun, and they will find him kindly disposed and also gracious towards them.

Protection with clause volumus, until Michaelmas, for the following, staying in Scotland on the king's service with John de Warenna, earl of Surrey:
