Membrane 14—cont.

of Eytham from the bridge of Thlandeyw to the ford called ‘Reederhenpont’ shall be free to them for hunting (sic). They shall hold these liberties to them and their heirs as long as they keep themselves faithfully in the king’s peace. The men of Melenith have paid for this grant 500L. Witnesses: Sir Richard, earl of Arundel; Sir John de Wyttone, abbot of Wygemor; Sir Caducanus ab Yeva, abbot of Cumhbr; Sir Richard de Baskervilla; Sir Hugh de Power, knights; Philip ap Howel, then his steward; John de Lyngeyne, and many others.

July 7. Licence, after inquisition ad quoddammiui by Roger Lestrange, late justice Westminster, of the forest this side Trent, for Oliver de Punchardon to cut down and sell the underwood of 50 acres of his wood of Faccumbe, within the metes of the forest of Chuyt, on condition that he enclose the said 50 acres with a small dyke and low hedge, so that the deer can get in and out, and keep them so enclosed for five years.

By inquisition returned from the Council.

July 9. Notification to the tenants of the lands late of Edmund, the king’s brother, that notwithstanding that Thomas de Lancastre, son and heir of the said Edmund, is a minor in the king’s custody, they are to do their homage to him.

July 8. Mandate to Hugh le Despenser, justice of the forest this side Trent, to permit the prior of St. Swinthi’s, Winchester, to hunt according to the tenor of the king’s charter to him and his successors, to wit, that they may hunt and make stable-stands in the demesne lands and woods where, according to an inquisition made, they have chaces in the county of Southampton, and carry away all manner of venison, and keep their dogs not expeditated; on condition that they set or stretch no nets for taking such venison.

July 10. Writ of aid, during pleasure, directed to the sheriffs of Essex, Norfolk and Suffolk, for John Boteturte, John Filliol, William de Kerdeston and Roger son of Osbert, appointed to take measures for the custody of the maritime parts of these counties by keeping and maintaining six ships at the cost of the inhabitants of those parts and of merchants passing through them.

The like directed to the sheriffs of Kent, Surrey, Sussex and Southampton for William de Leyburn, captain of the king’s mariners, Robert de Burghasse, Henry de Cobeham, and John de Munceaus, appointed to maintain twelve ships in these parts.

Pardon, for a fine of 20L, to the prior and convent of St. Mary’s, Carlisle, for entering without licence upon a toft and a croft with the appurtenances in Glassanby, with the advowson of the church of St. Michael, Addyngham, and of the chapel of Salkyld, by feoffment of Christiana de Lasceles, tenant in chief, and restitution to them of the same in frank almoiin.

July 12. Simple protection, for one year, for Walter de Norton, staying in Wales on the king’s service.

By testimony of John de Haveryng.

Membrane 13.

July 10. Grant to Richard Bnrnell, who is going with the king beyond seas, at the service of a fourth part of a knight’s fee, of the manor of Langeleye with the advowson of the chapel of Rokeleye, which was taken into the king’s hand as a forfeiture by judgment of the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer because Robert Burnel, late bishop of Bath and Wells, who held the same by grant