Memorandum, that on Friday after the feast of St. Gregory, to wit, 14 March, 26 Edward I., the king, coming from Flanders, landed about the ninth hour in the port of Sandwich, and on Saturday on the morrow, about the first hour, John de Langeton, the chancellor, in the king's chamber at Sandwich before the king's bed, in his presence and by his command, there standing by Sir R. de Grey, Sir J. de Drokenesford, then keeper of the wardrobe, and Sir J. de Benstede, delivered the seal which the king used in England while the said king was in Flanders, under his, the chancellor's, seal, to Sir W. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, the treasurer, for custody in the treasury; and the king immediately in the presence of all the said persons delivered with his own hand, under his privy seal, to Sir John de Langeton, his chancellor, his great seal which he had with him in Flanders.

[Feoda.] Safe-conduct, for fifteen days, for Welshmen of North Wales, returning home from Flanders under their conductor, Griffin ap Res. By p.s.
The like for Welshmen of West Wales, returning home under their conductor, Morgan ap Meredith. By p.s.

The like for the following Welsh of Snaudone:—
Yerward Abkenweryk.
Meyllir Bygod.
Tegwared Abthlewelyn.
Cadogon ap Teder.
Hughator and Eynnab Abanan.
By R., on the information of R. de Cottingham.

The like for the following Welsh of Kardygan:—
Gorgene Graagh.
David Apyegeynon.
Yerward Apkedeyor.
Morice ap David. By R., on the information of R. de Cottingham.

Promise to pay, a fortnight after Easter, the following persons for wool bought of them:—
Henry Faderman of Staunford, 8 marks 6s. 8d. for 1 sack bought by William Fraunk, Richard de Bella Fago, and their fellows appointed thereto in the county of Lincoln.
Geoffrey de Cotismere, 26s. 8d., for 6½ stone bought by the same.
Laurence the merchant (mercator) of Weynflet and Alan the tailor (Cissor) of Weynflet, 18l. 10s. 1d., for 4 sacks 7½ stone, bought by Robert de Basinges and his fellows in the county of Lincoln.
Simon de Thorp of Lindeseye, 63s. 2d. for 19 stone, bought by the same.
William Leniot of Wynthorp, 4l. 3s. for 24 stone, bought by the same.
Thomas Coke of Spalting, 28l. for 6 sacks, bought by William Fraunk and his fellows in the county of Lincoln.
Richard, vicar of Ludeford, 30s. for 8 stone, bought by Robert Basinges and Richard de Bella Fago and their fellows in that county.
Stephen de Stanham, citizen of Lincoln, 71l. 9s. 1d., for 12 sacks 48 stone bought by Robert Basinges and his fellows.