Membrane 19—cont.

The like to the said justice of Chester to array 300 Welsh foot in the parts of Mailler Saynakel, Hope, Ingelfeld, Drifyncelyth and Mohautesdale, and lead them to the king; and to Master Richard de Haveryng to pay them in the meantime.

The like to William de Felton, constable of Beaumaris, to array 500 Welsh foot in the parts of Angles, as in the last entry.

The like to the bailiff of John de Warenna, the earl of Surrey, of Bromfeld and Yal, to array 400 Welsh foot in his bailiwick, and Richard de Wardyngton, king's clerk, is to pay their wages until they come to the king.

The like to Roger de Mortuo Mari and William de la Pole to array 600 Welsh foot in the parts of Landuho, Meyskyn, Moghelan and la Pole, to be paid as last mentioned.

The like to Owen de Monte Gomeri, king's clerk, to array 600 Welsh foot in the lands of Edmund de Mortuo Mari of Kery, Cadowy and Arewostly, to conduct them in conjunction with John de Clynton, appointed thereto by the said Edmund, to Carlisle, and to Henry de Branteston, king's clerk, to pay their wages until they come to the king.

The like to Walter de Beysyn to array 1,500 Welsh foot, to wit, in the parts of Brecon, 400; in the parts of Castle Maude, 300; in the parts of Buelt and Hirveryton, 500; and Trecastle (de partibus trium castrorum), Kedewelli and Monemuth, 300; and to Master Walter de Clune, king's clerk, to pay their wages until they come to the king.

The like to Warin Martyn and Walter de Pellerton, supplying (tenenti) the place of Robert de Tybetot, justice of West Wales, to array 2,500 Welsh foot, to wit, in the parts of Cardygan, Strattey, and Devet, 2,300; and in the parts of Kemneys, 200; and to Master Gilbert de Arderne, king's clerk, to pay their wages until they come to the king.

The like to Henry de Penbryg and Morgan ap Meredu to array 1,000 Welsh foot in Morganno, and to Master John de Borham, king's clerk, to pay their wages until they come to the king.

Memorandum, that this writ whereby the mandate was directed to the king's bailiffs of Morganno was afterwards surrendered, and a mandate was directed to Ralph de Monte Hermy, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, for him to command his bailiffs to be attentive to the said Henry and Morgan.

The like to Reginald de Grey, justice of Chester, to array 1,000 foot in the county of Chester and to lead them to Berwick, and to Reginald de Gatecumbe, king's clerk, to pay their wages.

The like to Thomas le Waleys to array 400 Welsh foot in the parts of Bergeveny as in the last entry, and to Walter de Clune, king's clerk, to pay their wages.

Memorandum, that the letters directed to John de Warenna's bailiff of Bromfeld and Yal, to array 400 men there, and those directed to Reginald de Grey to array 1,000 men in the county of Chester, were afterwards renewed, under date of 12 May, Thetford, and in place of Richard de Wardyngton and Reginald de Gatecumbe, respectively, Master Richard de Haveryng was appointed to pay their wages, and the said letters were not surrendered.

May 12. Writ de intendendo directed to the sheriff of Lancaster for Reginald de Grey, justice of Chester, appointed to array the said number of men in the county of Chester. [Parl. Writs, vol. 1., pp. 312-14].