1298.
Sept. 9. The like of Robert de Wodehouse to the church of Elon, in the diocese of Aberdeen.
Carlisle. By p.s.
Oct. 5. Pardon to Walter son of Richard Outhewolde of Nees, by reason of his service in Scotland, for the death of John Wolf of Carleton.
Jedburgh. By p.s.
Carlisle. By p.s.
Oct. 6. The like to John son of Reginald Gog of Woutton, on testimony by Hugh Bardolf of his service in the army in Gascony, for the death of Adam Clipcente.
Jedburgh. By p.s.

July 20. The like to John Bauchon of Elgheton, who has found sufficient surety by Hugh de Picworth, Elias de Misterton of the county of York, and Ralph de Saxelby of the county of Lincoln, to stay at his own cost on the king's service in the present war of Scotland, at the king's will, for the death of Geoffrey de Langtoft.
Kirkliston. By p.s.

Oct. 6. The like to Thomas de Thaxstede of the county of Essex, by reason of his service in Gascony, for the death of Simon de Littel Berdefeld of that county.
Jedburgh. By p.s.

Sept. 24. The like to Stephen Langer of Candel, of the county of Dorset, by reason of his service in the army in Flanders, for robberies, &c., in that and other counties while the king was in Flanders.
Stanwix. By p.s.

Stirling. By p.s.

Oct. 14. Presentation of Master Peter de Guldeford to the church of Borle, in the diocese of London. By the chancellor for the smallness of the benefice.
Jedburgh. By p.s.

Oct. 7. Pardon to William Godesgrace of Snedeland, by reason of his service in Scotland, for the death of Ralph le Furner of Snedeland.
Jedburgh. By p.s.

Sept. 12. The like to Thomas de Lyham of the county of Northumberland, by reason of like service, for robberies committed against merchants of Hauburgh at sea.
Carlisle. By p.s.

Oct. 14. Ratification of a grant made by Henry de Lacy, earl of Lincoln, when he was the king's lieutenant in the duchy of Aquitaine, to Bernard de Sancto Crico, king's clerk, by reason of his service in those parts, of the king's orchard (viridarium) and the land thereof, with the land under the castle of Bongardes called the king's place, to hold during pleasure, saving the right of anyone; and further grant to him of the same in fee simple by the service of a lance with gilt iron by the name of a gift (nomine sportule), to be presented at every change of a superior lord.
Jedburgh. By K., on the information of W. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield.

Jedburgh. By p.s.

Vacated because otherwise in the Patent Roll, 28 Edward I., with a pardon for his outlawry, in the month of January.

Oct. 14. Pardon to the prior and convent of Ely, in consideration of a fine of 500 marks made by the prior before the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer, for appropriating without licence the advowson of the churches of Wysebeche and Foxton, of the patronage of the bishopric of Ely, and holding the said churches by grant and collation of Hugh de Balsham, sometime bishop of Ely, who held them in chief; and licence for them to retain these.