Confirmation of grants by Roger de Moubray, tenant in chief, deceased, to John de Creppinges: (1) of all those lands, rents and possessions, with a messuage which Roger had of the gift of Geoffrey de Thorny in the towns of Belton, Beltoft and Althorp, and by another charter of the said lands and tenements with housebote and heybote and common of pasture for all his beasts within the Isle of Haxiholme, and acquittance of puanaage for all his swine in all Roger's woods within that island to him and his heirs; (2) of the whole vaccary which belonged to Roger in the wood of Mewyth, to him and the heirs of his body; (3) of two acres of land in Burton in Lounesdale, and by another charter of a plot 80 feet square in Roger's wood of Mewyth to make a vaccary; (4) of 20l. in rent in the town and manor of Melton Moubray out of the issues of the market-toll (fori tolnei) and the fair (undinarum), to hold for life; (5) of a quitclaim of 20 roodlands (rodalibils) and 2 acres of land in Burton in Lounesdale, formerly demised by Roger to John, for life, to hold in fee simple; confirmation also of grants in fee simple by Roger to John and Alice his wife of (6) a plot of meadow, called 'Clippemere,' in Belton; (7) 4 acres of land of the assart of Belegraves, in Belton; (8) a plot of waste in the field of Belton, called 'Deringle,' 22 perches long, 8½ perches broad at the west end, and 8 perches at the east end; (9) John Coleman of Belton, a bondman, with his chattels and issues, to hold in fee simple; (10) two bovates of land in Epworth; (11) 12 acres of land in Belton of Roger's new assart within his close of Belegraves; (12) a plot of wood in Belegraves in Epworth; and (13) a close of waste containing 22 acres, in Roger's wood of Mosewode, to hold to him and his heirs.

Membrane 3.

Pardon to the following, by reason of their service in Scotland:

- Walter son of John de Ely, for robberies, &c., in the county of Norfolk. By p.s.
- John Kyng of Helton, for the like in the county of Westmoreland.
- Reginald le Fevre of Wrotham of the county of Norfolk, for the death of Reginald le Charpenter of Wrotham.
- John de Ebryston, for the death of Richard Ferzing.
- The like, at the instance of several persons, to Geoffrey de Huntingdon, for the death of Sibyl Marlemont of Lydebury.
- The like to Richard Hirdman, by reason of his service in Scotland, for the death of Robert Frece of Clifton, and of his outlawry for the same.
- The like to Nicholas son of Nicholas de Dale, by reason of the like service, for robberies, &c., in the county of York and of any outlawry for the same.
- Presentation of Robert de Askeby to the church of Eglismaleshou, in the diocese of Glasgow.
- Pardon to Geoffrey Russel of Hatherne, of the county of Leicester, by reason of his services in Scotland, for robberies, &c., in the county of Warwick.
- The like to William Paulyn of New Radenore, of his outlawry for a default which he made before the king touching a plea of trespass of Agnes, late the wife of John Gour.