Feb. 8. Grant to John Brouward, king's clerk, of the prebend in the church of St. Mary, Lincoln, which Simon de Worthie, lately deceased, had in it, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the see of Lincoln. By p.s. Mandate in pursuance to the dean and chapter.

Feb. 5. Simple protection, until Christmas, for the abbot of Begeham, going beyond seas. By p.s. Letters for him, nominating Benedict de Begeham, his fellow canon, his attorney for the same time.

Feb. 24. Pardon, at the instance of Margaret, the king's consort, to Hugh son of Philip atte Halle of Heleweton, for the death of Thomas son of Henry Kyng of Ely, killed in the county of Norfolk, and of his outlawry, if any, for the same. By p.s.

March 1. Grant to John de Sancto Johanne 'le pere,' lately appointed as the king's captain and lieutenant in the counties of Cumberland, Westmoreland and Lancaster, of Annandale and the marches, as far as the bounds of the county of Rokesburgh, and Master Richard de Abindon, king's clerk, to distrain, punish and amerce all persons who do not obey the summons of the said John to come to the defence of the marches and go against the enemy; and they may levy such amercements as speedily as they think fit, and devote them to the king's service, or give or keep them as they think fit. Writ of aid by letters close to the sheriff of Lancaster. The like to the sheriffs of Westmoreland and Cumberland. Mandate to the said Richard to give his best counsel in the business. French. [Parl. Writs: vol. i., p. 310.]

March 1. Writ of aid to the sheriff of Northumberland in favour of Robert le Fuiz Rogier, appointed the king's captain and lieutenant in that county, without the garrisons of Berewyk and Werk, and throughout the marches; and he is to cause to come to Berewyk and elsewhere in those parts corn and other victuals in abundance. French. [Parl. Writs: vol. i., p. 340.]

March 6. Mandate to the mayor and bailiffs of Oxford, to assist Henry de Bluntesdon, keeper of the Domus Conversorum, London, when required, to collect the rents and arrears of rents due to the house, which their tenants in the town of Oxford continue to put off paying.

March 7. Grant to Gilbert de Navenby, king's clerk, of the treasurership of the church of St. Mary, Lincoln, which is void and in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of that see. By K. Mandate in pursuance to the dean and chapter.

March 7. Signification to R. archbishop of Canterbury, primate of all England, of the royal assent to the election of Master John de Dalderby, chancellor of the church of St. Mary, Lincoln, to be bishop.
