Membrane 9—cont.

Exchange, London, for the purpose of making an exchange therewith, that they shall be satisfied for the same out of the issues of that exchange from the feast of All Saints next. By K., on like information.

July 15. Caerlaverock. Simple protection, until Christmas, for the abbot of Kirkestede, going to his general Cistercian chapter.

July 21. Kirkcudbright. The like for the abbot of Vale Royal, also going there.

July 21. Kirkcudbright. Letters for Adam, abbot of Cumbremare, also going there, nominating Adam de Cuddelowe, his fellow monk, and John de Lee, his attorneys until All Saints.

Simple protection for him.

June 30. Carlisle. Grant, for life, to William de Mulecastre of the manor of Boulton in Allerdale, co. Cumberland, late of Geoffrey de Moubray, of Scotland, deceased, the king's enemy and rebel, and which is in the king's hands as his escheat, saving to the king knights' fees, advowsons of churches, wards, reliefs, escheats and dowers when they fall in, at a rent at the Exchequer by the hands of the sheriff of Cumberland of 40l.

By K., on the information of W. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield and J. de Drokenesford.

Membrane 8.

July 27. Kirkcudbright. Appointment of Peter de Lound and Thomas de Alta Ripa, Reyner de Clmol and John de Totenou to select in the wapentakes of Staynclyve, Boughelaunde, and Youcrosse, co. York, 700 footmen with officers of hundreds and twenties (cum centenariis et vintenariis) for the Scotch expedition, and to compel by seizure of their bodies and imprisonment those who refuse to come; and the said Reyner is to conduct them to Carlisle with all speed so as to be there on the morrow of St. Lawrence at latest; and Robert de Beaufey, king's clerk, is to pay their wages until they arrive there.

The like of the following in the following wapentakes and liberties in the county of York:—

Ralph son of Ranulph, knight (miles), and Adam de Neyr ford to select 600 footmen in the liberty of Rychemund; the said Ralph is to conduct them and Robert de Beaufey to pay their wages until they arrive.

Arnold de Percy, John de Barton, and Robert Gouer, knights, and Richard de Shelton, to select 2,000 footmen in the wapentakes of Langebergh, Rydal and Bruford, and the liberties of Whiteby, Scardeburgh, Pykering and Belande; the said Arnold and Robert are to conduct them so that they arrive on the morrow of the Assumption, and Thomas de Cornubia, clerk, is to pay their wages.

John de Donecastre, William de Wyntwrth and Robert Tylly to select 400 footmen in the wapentake of Stratford and the liberty of Tikhull; William de Wyntwrth is to conduct them so as to arrive by the morrow of the Assumption, and John de Derby, clerk, to pay their wages.

John de Reygate, Alan de Smythetun, Walter de Sutton, Oliver de Stanstede and John le Scot of Calverle to select 400 footmen in the wapentake of Barkeston and the liberties of Seleby, Osgotcrosse,