Oct. 14. Grant to Robert de Crevequer, in compensation for 45l. a year out of the issues of the mills and bridge of Chester, and 20l. a year out of the farm of Hereford which he was receiving for life, of 65l. a year out of the farm of the town of Northampton, by the hands of the mayor and bailiffs of that town. Hereofore, in consideration of his quit-claiming to Eleanor, queen of England, the king’s consort, and the king’s heirs, the manor of Ditton and a moiety of the manor of Saham, co. Cambridge, which he held for life by the king’s grant, the king granted to him for life the custody of the castle of Bestan, co. Chester, 100s. for its custody and 40l. a year out of the issues of the said mills and bridge of Chester, 20l. a year out of the farm of the town of Hereford, and 20l. out of the farm of the hundred without the North Gate, Oxford; but the king, having now granted the county of Chester to Edward the king’s son and his heirs the kings of England, and having assigned the said farm of Hereford with other farms, lands and tenements to Margaret, queen of England, the king’s consort, in acquittance of her expenses, whereby the said Robert can no longer receive the said 45l. and 20l. a year, the king has made the above grant in compensation thereof.

By bill of Exchequer.
