Power to the same to establish a truce with the Scots.

Like letter was made without the name of the count of Savoy. [Feodera.]

Pardon, at the instance of John, earl of Warenne, to John de Wortelay for the death of John de Warham. By p.s.

Nov. 8. Grant to Ralph de Manton, of the deanery of the king's free chapel of St. Byrian, in the diocese of Exeter, void by the resignation of William de Hamelton. By p.s.

Mandate in pursuance to the chapter.

Nov. 15. Gregory de Sancto Albano, John de Stopesle and Richard de Wathamsted, monks of St. Alphans, bringing news of the death of John, their abbott, have letters of licence to elect. By p.s.

Pardon to Henry Doughty of Blaketoft, by reason of his service by the maritime parts of Scotland, for the death of Thomas del Cornebays. By p.s.

The like, at the instance of Walter de Bello Campo, steward of the household, to Margery, late the wife of Henry de Droys, a prisoner in Gloucester gaol, of whatever belongs to the king by reason of her being taken in her husband's company, when he was taken at Newcastle-on-Tyne, for robberies, homicides and other trespasses, for which he was outlawed. By p.s.

Licence for Richard de Aston to enfeoff John de Drokenesford of his manor of Aston, and for the said John to demise the same to Richard for life. By p.s.

The like to Richard son of Richard Reison of St. Albans, by reason of his service in Scotland, for the death of Peter de Milhain. By p.s.

The like to the following, by reason of their service in the Scotch war:— John de Askelwyth of his outlawry for not appearing before John de Metingham and his fellows, justices of the Bench, to answer Mary de Nevill on a plea of trespass; as appears by a record of the said justices. By p.s.

Thomas de Wynton, son of Henry le Convers, for homicides, robberies, larcenies, receiving felons and other trespasses against the peace. By p.s.

Richard Crowe of his outlawry for not appearing to answer Mary de Nevill on a plea of trespass as above. By p.s.

Thomas de Hedenham for robberies and other trespasses against the peace, and of his outlawry for the same. By p.s.

The like to Richard son of Stephen de Querton for robberies, larcenies and other trespasses against the peace in the county of Westmoreland and other counties, and of his outlawry for the same. By p.s.

Richard Crowe of his outlawry for not appearing to answer Mary de Nevill on a plea of trespass as above. By p.s.

Thomas de Hedenham for robberies and other trespasses against the peace, and of his outlawry for the same. By p.s.

The like to Richard son of Stephen de Querton for robberies, larcenies and other trespasses against the peace in the county of Westmoreland and other counties, and of his outlawry for the same. By p.s.

The like to John Sheresman, by reason of his service by the maritime parts of Scotland, for the death of Alan Gerveys of Morpath, and for the death of some men in a cog of Lybik at Thedepes near Lenn. By p.s.

The like to William de Gotham, for like service, for the death of John de Haliwell of Oxford, and for breaking the prison of Northgate, Oxford, and