

1301.

Membrane 15d—cont.

broke and threw down a dyke lately raised round his meadow at Crowemersh, co. Buckingham, while he was in the king's service beyond seas, whereby several beasts entered it and depastured and trod down the grass.

May 28.
Kenilworth.

The like to William de Ormesby, William Haward and Henry Spygurnel on complaint by Peter de Keteringham that Lawrence de Brakene, William Lawrencenserjeant de Brakene, and John Gerard took him at Keteringham, and brought him to Norwich, co. Norfolk, to the house of the said Lawrence, and detained him there a long time, until against his will he demised to the said Lawrence in fee a shop in that town.

By fine of 100s. made before the bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, on the information of W. de Thorntoft.

June 1.
Kenilworth.

The like to William Inge and Roger de Suthcotes, on the supplication of the appellees touching an appeal which Felicia, late the wife of John Wyter, brings in the county of Stafford against Adam de Staneye and Richard Hisserjeant for the death of her husband.

By K., on the information of J. de Drokenesford.

May 29.
Kenilworth.

The like to William de Bereford and John de Neuburgh touching the persons who lately killed Stephen le Messer of Seles at Seles, co. Wilts.

By K.

June 4.
Whitwick.

The like to Roger de Hegham and Walter de Mullesworth touching the persons who by night broke the king's close at Northampton, fished in his stews, and carried away fish to the value of 40*l*.

June 4.
Whitwick.

The like to the same, on complaint by Master John le Keu of Waltham, king's serjeant, that Thomas de Whiteney assaulted him at Northampton.

By K.

The like to the same, on complaint by William le Chaundeler of the same.

By K.

MEMBRANE 14d.

June 2.
Kenilworth.

The like to Henry Spygurnel and Robert Hereward touching the persons who by night assaulted Otto de Grandisono, clerk at Cambridge, and beat his men.

By K.

June 4.
Whitwick.

The like to John le Bretun and Richard de Walsingham, on complaint by John de Warena, earl of Surrey, touching the persons who with a multitude of armed horse and foot broke his park of Worth, co. Sussex, while he was on the king's service, hunted therein, and carried away deer, abducted his men and plundered them of their goods; and the sheriff is to arrest those found guilty and keep them in safe custody, taking with him a sufficient posse comitatus, and also that of the earl if necessary.

By K.

MEMBRANE 12.

June 10.
Beverley.

The like to William de Alta Ripa and William de Mortuo Mari, on complaint by Richard son of Alan, earl of Arundel, touching the persons who entered his parks of Dunhurst, Arundele, Estedene and Stanstede, and his free chace at Arundel, co. Sussex, hunted therein, and carried away deer.

By p.s.

June 23.
Tynemouth.

The like to Robert de Retford and Henry Spigurnel, touching the persons who carried away the goods at Asshendon, co. Essex, of Hugh le Tailleur of London, lately deceased, in the custody of Alice, late his wife, Walter de Honylane, chaplain, and John Segyn, executors of his will.

By K., at the instance of the earl of Lincoln.