Letters for Giles de Trumpeton, going beyond seas on the king's service with Henry de Lacy, earl of Lincoln, nominating Robert de Gratsete his attorney until Michaelmas.

Mandate to Richard de Chuselden, constable of the castle of Mere, and keeper of the park there, to fell and sell, by view of two good men of those parts, 20L 12s. worth of wood and underwood in the park there, and to apply the money to the repair of the houses of the castle; and by view of the said two men to fell sufficient oaks, and prepare them for timber for the said repairs.

By K. on the information of W. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield.

Grant to Amadeus, count of Savoy, that as soon as Margaret queen of of England, the king's consort, has had from custodies 4,000L., which the king granted her therefrom for the discharge of her debts, he shall have all such custodies and marriages, and also from the present time the issues of all bishoprics, abbeys, and priories which fall void and are known to fall to the king during voidance, and hold them until he is fully satisfied of what remains due to him of 10,000 marks heretofore granted to him, and which were to be received by him out of the first custodies as soon as they came out of the hands of Edmund earl of Cornwall, who was then living. The count has to the present received on this account the custody of the lands late of Richard, sometime earl of Arundel, tenant in chief, which were in the king's hands by reason of the minority of Edmund son and heir of the said Richard, except the castle and park of Arundel, and the park of Esteden with the manor thereof, together with six woods in the free chase and the seven and a half hundreds, which are extended at 57L 2s. 7½d., to hold in payment of 600L. a year under certain conditions set forth in the letters patent. Also all the issues of the bishoprics of Ely, Worcester, and Bath and Wells, during their voidance.

See the schedule attached for the said count. [The schedule is missing.]

Writ de intendendo directed to the tenants of the abbey of Waltham Holy Cross, in favour of John de Badburgham, abbot elect, preferred to be abbot by the Pope, whose fealty the king has taken and restored to him the temporalities.

A memorandum touching the restitution of the temporalities of the said abbey is enrolled above, after the restitution of the temporalities of the bishopric of Ely.

Licence for Reginald de Assheburne, and Edith his wife, in consideration of a fine made by them before Walter, bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, treasurer, and after inquisition ad quod damnum made by the sheriff of Kent, to retain 12½ acres of land in Rokynge, whereof they were enfeoffed without licence by Roger son of William de Funaund of Newechirche, who held them in chief.

Pardon to Richard son of John Gilbert of Eketon, by reason of his service in Scotland, for the death of Augustine de Chelveston, and of any consequent outlawry. By K. at the instance of Nicholas Malemains.

Licence for Henry de Lacy, earl of Lincoln, notwithstanding the statute of mortmain, to restore certain lands and plots of moor in a place called Inkelesmore, to certain religious from whom he had caused them long ago to be taken.

The like at the request of the said earl for the abbot and convent of Thornton, to receive in mortmain a plot of moor there 173 perches in
