Elizabeth and leaving his heir a minor, that the king would lose the custody of the said manors and lands if Elizabeth lived through the minority of the heir.

Licence, in consideration of a fine made by the master in the Chancery, for the alienation in mortmain by Walter son of Henry le Mouner, chaplain, to the master and brethren of the hospital of St. John, Bannewbury, of a messuage, a mill, and a virgate of land in Wykham by Bannewbury.

Presentation of John de Anna to the church of All Saints, Dorcestre, in the diocese of Salisbury, void by the resignation of John le Waleys.

Safe-conduct, until Easter, directed to all bailiffs and others in the counties of York, Northumberland, Cumberland, and Westmoreland, and the parts of Scotland, for John Somery and Hugh Somery, the king's hawk-keepers (aneipites nostri), coming to divers of the above parts, with nets, nooses, and other engines to catch fowl for the use of the king and his consort Margaret. By testimony of J. de Drokenesford.

Presentation of John le Waleys to the church of St. Peter, North Street, Chichester; directed to Master William de Grenefeld, dean of the church of the Holy Trinity, Chichester.

Letters for Thomas de Snyterby, going to Ireland, nominating Peter Cobbe and Simon Waleys of Glentbam his attorneys for two years.

Safe-conduct, for one year, for the men whom the prior of St. Mary's, Carlisle, is sending in his ship to Ireland to purvey necessary for himself and his convent.

Protection with clause volumus, until the Purification, for John de Creyk, going beyond seas on the service of Edward, prince of Wales and earl of Chester, the king's son. By the Chancellor.

Order to the mayor and bailiffs of the town of Northampton, to pay to Robert de Crevcher 65l. out of the farm of the said town and they shall have due allowance at the Exchequer. Some time ago Robert quit-claimed in fee to the king and Eleanor, the late queen consort, the manor of Ditten and a moiety of the manor of Saham, co. Cambridge, which he held for life by grant of the king, and the king granted to him the custody of the castle of Bestan, co. Chester, and 100s. for the same, and 44l. out of the issues of the mills and bridge of Chester, 20l. out of the farm of the town of Hereford, and 20l. out of the farm of the hundred without the north gate of Oxford, yearly for life. The king afterwards granted to Edward his son the county of Chester to him and his heirs the kings of England; and assigned to Margaret, the king's consort, the farm of Hereford with some other farms, lands and tenements, in acquittance of her expenses; in compensation whereof the king granted him for life the said 65l. a year out of the farm of the said city from 14 October, 29 Edward I.

Letters for Master William de la Ryveres, staying in England, nominating Roger Curteys and Thomas Kenok his attorneys in Ireland for two years.

Appointment, at the request of Guy de Bello Campo, earl of Warwick, of Adam de Herwynton, king's clerk, to the custody of the manor of Tatlington, co. Worcester, in the king's hands by reason of the idiocy of John Walraund, son and heir of William Walraund, for as long as it remains in the king's hands for that reason, rendering yearly at the Exchequer, 16l. 3d. its extent.

Writ de intendendo directed to the tenants.