

MEMBRANE 15.

1304.
June 16. Stirling. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Robert de Mithingesby to the abbot and convent of Peterborough of a messuage, a toft, 74 acres of land and 4 acres of meadow in Peterborough, Walton, Dodesthorp, Newerk, Carton, Thorp and Eye. By p.s.
- June 9. Stirling. Licence for James de la Plaunche to crenellate his dwelling-place of Haveresham, co. Buckingham. By p.s.
- June 24. Stirling. Pardon to Robert le Waleys for the death of Hugh Feyth, as it appears by the record of Roger de Sutbcote and Andrew de Trelosk, justices appointed to deliver Exeter gaol, that he killed him in self-defence.
- June 20. Stirling. Licence, after inquisition ad quod damnum made by the sheriff of York, and in consideration of a fine made in the chancery by the prior of Boulton in Cravene, for the prior and convent of Marton to assign in frank almoin to the prior and convent of Boulton in Cravene a rood of land in Appeltrewyk held by the former in frank almoin, in exchange for another rood of land there; also for Adam de Wodehuses and William de Wodehuses to assign in frank almoin to the prior and convent of Boulton in Cravene a moiety of a rood of land there, which is held in chief as of the manor of Skypton in Cravene by as much knight service as pertains to a moiety of a rood when 14 carucates of land make a knight's fee.
- June 24. Stirling. Safe-conduct, for one year, for Master Bartholomew de Ferentino, king's clerk, canon of St. Paul's, London, going to the court of Rome on the king's special affairs.
By K. on the information of W. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield.
Protection, with clause volumus, for one year for him.
Letters for him, nominating Berard de Aquila and Richard Turbet his attorneys for one year.
- June 12. Stirling. Pardon, at the instance of Robert, abbot of Bardeneye, to Master Robert de Ros, official of R. archbishop of Canterbury, for holding and suing a plea in the Court Christian touching lay fees, lately in the king's hands, of the abbey of Bardeneye at the suit of the abbot. By p.s.
- June 12. Stirling. Safe-conduct, until two years after Michaelmas, for the said abbot, going to the court of Rome, and his household, their horses and baggage. By K.
- June 14. Stirling. Grant to John de Segrave and Christiana his wife—to whom the abbot of Hayles, William de Bereford and Walter de Aylesbury, executors of the will of Edmund, sometime earl of Cornwall, in pursuance of an assignment to them, for the payment of the king's debt to the earl, sold for 800*l.* the custody, during the minority of the heirs, of the lands late of Hugh de Plessetis, tenant in chief, with the marriage of the heirs, as appears by letters exhibited in the Chancery—that if anything happen to them before the said heirs come of age, their executors shall have the said custody, with knights' fees, and advowsons of churches, together with the marriage of the heirs, until such time; saving to Margaret, late the wife of the said Hugh, her reasonable dower of such fees and advowsons, and grant also of the reversion of the latter lands.
By K. on the information of W. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield.
Pardon to the said John de Segrave of 400*l.* out of the said 800*l.*, as the treasurer informs the king that by account made before the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer the earl has been fully paid out of other custodies and marriages, whereby the above custody and marriage remains wholly at the disposal of the king. On the same information.
