Oct. 19. Protection with clause volumus, until the Purification, for Humphrey de Bohun, earl of Hereford and Essex, going beyond seas in the company of Edward the king’s son. By p.s.

Oct. 10. Pardon to Walter Hondeys, in Hereford gaol for the death of John le Soutere of Whyle, as it appears by the record of John Randolf and Richard de Baskervill, justices appointed to deliver that gaol, that he killed him in self defence.

Oct. 19. Masters Robert de Repplingham, chancellor of St. Peter’s, York, and William de Pykering, archdeacon of Nottingham, canons of the said church, bringing news of the death of Thomas, archbishop of York, have letters of licence to elect. By p.s.

Oct. 17. Grant for life to Robert de Crevequer of 20l. a year out of the farm of the town of Derby. Some time ago, in exchange for Robert’s quitclaim to the king, and Eleanor, sometime queen of England, the king’s consort, of the manor of Ditton and a moiety of the manor of Saham, co. Cambridge, which he held for life by grant of the king, the king granted him for life the custody of the castle of Bestan, co. Chester, and 100s. a year for that custody, 45l. out of the issues of the mills and bridge of Chester, 20l. out of the farm of the town of Hereford, and 20l. out of the farm of the hundred without the north gate of Oxford yearly. Afterwards the king granted to Edward his son the county of Chester, and assigned to Margaret, queen of England, his consort, amongst other things, the farm of Hereford. On 14 October, in the 29th year, in compensation for the 45l. from the mills and bridge of Chester and 20l. from the farm of Hereford, the king granted Robert 65l. a year out of the farm of the town of Northampton by the hands of the mayor and bailiffs thereof. On 21 June, in the 32nd year, the king granted to the above Margaret the above hundred, amongst other lands with which she heretofore dowered her, wherefore, in compensation for 20l. a year which Robert received therefrom, the present grant is made.
