Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Thomas, earl of Lancaster, the king's kinsman, to the Friars Hermits of the Augustinian order, Leicester, of 3 messuages in the suburb of Leicester adjoining their dwelling-place, for the enlargement thereof.

Licence, after inquisition ad quod damnum made by the sheriff of York, in consideration of a fine made by the grantee in the Chancery, for the said earl to grant in fee simple to Master William de Fyrkering a plot of land in Haterbergh by Scardeburgh, enclosed with a stone wall and built upon with houses, containing an acre and a half, which Henry III. gave to the Friars Minor of Scardeburgh in frank almoin, and which came before his death to the hands of Edmund, the king's brother, father of the present earl, as chief lord of the fee, after those friars transferred themselves to within the town of Scardeburgh.

Letters for Robert de Napton, staying in Ireland, nominating Henry de Holkeleye his attorney for two years.

Pardon to John de Kyrkeby, king's clerk, in consideration of a fine made before the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer, for acquiring in fee simple, 9 messuages, a toft, 120 acres of land, 40 acres of meadow, and a rent of a pound of cummin in Braytweyt from Thomas de Ireby who held the same in chief, and for afterwards alienating them in fee tail without licence to Thomas son of Thomas and Agnes his wife at a rent of 4l. a year, payable to the said John for life, with reversion to the said John; with licence for the said alienation to hold good.

Pardon to Thomas, earl of Lancaster, of 918l. 8s. with which Edmund his father was charged, in the 23rd year, at the Exchequer, by W. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, treasurer, late keeper of the wardrobe, in his account of the wardrobe for that year, for 212 quarters of wheat, 500 quarters of oats delivered by Peter de Cycestre, 533 quarters of oats delivered by Adam de Blida, 6 tuns of wine by John le Treour, and 2 tuns of wine by Matthew de Columbar[ius] in the 23rd year, and 2 tuns of wine delivered by John de Sumers[et] in the 24th year; as appears by certificate of the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer ; the king having been informed that the said Edmund received the same for the maintenance of his household when he crossed over to Gascony on the king's service. By p.s.

Mandate in pursuance to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer.

Presentation of John de Anna the younger to the church of St. Peter by the Gilde Halle, North Street, Cycestre, in the diocese of Chichester, void by the resignation of John de Galeys, directed to the dean of Chichester.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Thomas, earl of Lancaster, to the Augustinian Friars, Leycester, as above.

Licence, in consideration of a fine made by the prior before the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer, for the alienation in mortmain by William Desert to the prior and convent of Boulton-in-Cravene of 4 bovates of land in Apeltrewyk.

The like, in consideration of a fine made before the same by Richard de Wyluby, for the alienation in mortmain by him of 5 marks rent in Nottingham to a chaplain celebrating divine service daily in the church of St. Peter, Nottingham, for the soul of Richard Bugge, his father, and of all the faithful dead.

Grant to William de Sancto Paulo, Arnold de Sancto Martino, John de Beryes, Raymond de Artigalung, John de Seignaus and Peter de Francia, yeoman of John de Seincrlik and Vincent de Lageneys, citizens and merchants