CALENDAR OF PATENT ROLLS.

1307.

Aug. 20. Cumnock. Grant, for life, to Gilbert de Stapelton, king's clerk, of the custody of the hospital of St. Leonard, York, subject to the maintenance of the appointed alms and other pious works. By p.s. Writ de intendendo directed to the brethren of the hospital. Et fuerunt patentes.

Sept. 1. Annandale. The abbot of Beaubec (de Bello Becco), staying in Ireland (sic), has letters nominating Ralph de Hermavilie and Robert Brae his attorneys in Ireland for three years.

Aug. 31. Trinwald. Protection, with clause volumus, until the Purification, for Walter de Bello Campo, staying in Scotland on the king's service. By p.s.

Sept. 4. Carlisle. Restoration, with divers reservations, to A. patriarch of Jerusalem and bishop of Durham, of the liberty of that bishopric, which had been taken into the hands of the late king. By p.s.

Sept. 6. Appointment, during pleasure, of John Bocun, king's clerk, to the custody of the rolls and writs of the Bench. By p.s.

Sept. 6. Brough-under-Stainmore. Grant to Guy Ferre of 1,000 marks of the king's gift payable by the escheator beyond Trent out of the issues of wardships and marriages within his escheatorship. By p.s.

Sept. 16. Wyrkesop. Grant to William de Boudon of the prebend in the church of St. Patrick, Dublin, lately held by Robert Bagot, in the king's gift by reason of the late voidance of the see of Dublin. By p.s.

Sept. 2. Carlisle. Andrew Ohablydy, canon of the church of Elphin, bringing news of the death of Donat [O'Flanagan], the late bishop of that place, has letters of licence to elect. By p.s.

The king, upon notification by the dean and chapter of the church of Elphin that their church is void through the death of Donat, the late bishop, having granted them in accordance with their petition a licence to elect, and wishing to spare them trouble and expense, empowers Geoffrey de Geynville, upon the presentation to him of the elect by the dean and chapter, to give the royal assent to such election, and desires him to signify the same to Thomas, bishop of Emly the chancellor of Ireland, who shall issue a mandate under the king's seal for Ireland, on behalf of the elect, to the metropolitan of the place to do his duty therein. The king further empowers Geoffrey de Geynville, upon notification by the metropolitan of the canonical confirmation of the election and upon acceptance of fealty from the elect, to certify the same to the chancellor so that he may in accordance with the tenor of the king's mandate cause the temporalities of the bishopric of Elphin to be delivered to him.
