Acceptance of a remission made by the late king to Eleanor, late the wife of Robert de Stuteville, one of his nurses, of payment of 40l., part of the 120l. due to the Exchequer on account of the debts of her late husband and of John de Stuteville his father; also of the permission granted to her to pay the balance by instalments. By p.s. Mandate in pursuance to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer.

Appointment, during pleasure, from Michaelmas next, of Eustace de Knaresborough, Cotesbache, clerk, to be chamberlain and receiver for Scotland and to discharge that office through Robert Heyron, king’s clerk, the controller there, receiving the same fee as John de Sandale, the late chamberlain.

By p.s. Mandate in pursuance to John de Sandale to deliver to him the rolls, &c., of that office.

Protection, for one year from Michaelmas, for Eustace de Codesbache, Knaresborough, going to Scotland on the king’s service. By p.s. The like for Robert Petit of Pykering, Edmund de Dakere, William Tatham, Roger de Haverbergh, Thomas de Latham, Ralph de Bykerstaf, Roger de Forneby, Richard le Waleis, and Robert de Littelwode accompanying him.

Presentation of Maurice de Walden to the church of Kenenarth in the diocese of St. David’s.

Mandate to Walter de Istelep’ to deliver the temporalities of the archbishopric of Dublin to Richard de Havering’, preferred thereto by the Pope upon the death of Richard de Feringes, he having renounced the papal letters, so far as they may be to the prejudice of the king’s crown and dignity, and the king having in consideration of his petition, and not on account of the Pope’s letters, accepted fealty from and restored the temporalities to him. By p.s. Mandate in pursuance to John de Cadomo, the keeper of the temporalities.

Writ de intendendo directed to the knights and other tenants of the archbishopric.

Appointment, during pleasure, of John de Sandale, king’s clerk, to the office of chancellor of the Exchequer, to hold in the same manner as John de Benstede, the late chancellor. By p.s. Mandate in pursuance to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer.

Grant to John de Leek’, king’s clerk, of the precentorship in the church of St. Patrick, Dublin, in the king’s gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of Dublin. By p.s. Mandate in pursuance to the dean and chapter.

William de Donecastra, burgess and merchant of Chester, staying in England, has letters nominating John de Leycest’ and Ralph de Cubbelele his attorneys in Ireland for two years.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Robert de Clifford to the office of the marshals of England. By p.s. Mandate to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer to receive whomsoever the same Robert shall appoint to act as his deputy. [Federas; and Parl. Writs.]

Notification to the mayor and commonalty of Bayonne, of the late king’s approbation of their good will towards him, and of his commendation of the diligence of John de Lystowe, their fellow citizen and proctor in England,