Membrane 12—cont.

1308. held in chief, and for the grantees to re-convey the same to the grantor for her life, with remainders over to Thomas her son for his life, to James de Lamberne and Joan and his heirs.

May 15. William de Clere, going to Ireland, has letters nominating John de Benham and Thomas de Morton his attorneys for one year.

The abbot of Annale (de Alba Martia), staying beyond seas, has letters nominating James Bat of Belestede and Hugh le Porter of Skeftlinge his attorneys for three years. By p.s.

Membrane 11.

May 4. Mandate to Walter de Gloucester, escheator on this side Trent, for the restoration of the temporalities of the priory of Priterwelle to Henry de Fautrariis, a monk of Lewes, preferred by the prior of Lewes to be prior of that house.

Writ de intendendo directed to the tenants of the house.

Commission, during pleasure, associating Thomas de Multon of Egremond, as a conservator of the peace for Holland, in the county of Lincoln, with Edmund Deyneurt, Ralph Paynel, Ranulph de Ry, and the sheriff of the county of Lincoln, conservators of the peace for that county. [Part. Writs.] By K., on the information of W. de Melton.

May 4. Mandate to Richard le Jouene to deliver the castle of Ruffyn, the custody of which had been committed to him, during pleasure, to John de Grey, son and heir of Reginald de Grey, deceased, tenant in chief, the king having granted to Walter de Gloucester, escheator on this side Trent, power to receive fealty from the heir. By K.

Licence, upon fine, for Richard de Sutton to grant, in fee, to his son John de Sutton, and Margaret his wife, the manor of Theydon, co. Essex, with the advowson of the church of that place, and the manor of Warsop, co. Nottingham, with the advowson of its church, all which are held in chief.

May 4. Licence for John de Bello Campo of Fifhyde to grant, in fee, to his son Nicholas de Bello Campo the manor of Fifhyde, co. Essex, held in chief, and for the latter to re-convey the same to his father for life.

Licence also for him to grant, in fee, to his son Nicholas, and Elizabeth his wife, the manor of Fuleburne, co. Cambridge, held in chief.

May 6. Mandate to Walter de Gloucester, escheator on this side Trent, for the restoration of the temporalities to Roger de Horton, late canon of the conventual church of Lanceton, elected prior of that place.

May 4. Pardon to William le Tongar of Gerneseye for abjuring the [Channel] Islands on account of a theft of two tunics worth 13 shillings of good money of Tours (solidorum bonorum Turonen') as certified by Otto de Grandisono, keeper of the islands. By p.s.