June 19. Mandate to John Wogan, justiciary of Ireland, and to the treasurer of Marlborough, to provide for the expedition to Scotland, in addition to the supplies elsewhere ordered to be provided in Ireland, 1,000 quarters of wheat, 1,000 quarters of oats, 200 quarters of beans and peas, 300 tuns of wine, 3 tuns of honey, 200 quarters of salt, and 1,000 stockfish out of the goods in Ireland of the Knights Templars in the king's hands, so far as the same will suffice, the deficiency to be made good out of the issues of the land. They are to forward these supplies by one or more ships to Skynburnesse and deliver them there before 15 August at latest. Due allowance will be made to the treasurer in his account. They are to give credence to William de Mardefeld and John Lucas, king's clerks, sent by the king to supervise and carry out these matters.

The like to the sheriff of the counties of Cambridge and Huntingdon to provide 500 quarters of wheat, 1,000 quarters of oats and 500 quarters of malt out of the goods of the Knights Templars and of Walter, bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, any deficiency to be made good out of the issues of his bailiwick. He is also to deliver the king's writ to R. bishop of Ely, and to obtain from him all the wheat on the bishop of Coventry and Lichfield's manor of Caldeham, within the liberty of the bishop of Ely. He is to give credence to John de Norton, specially sent to him on account of this matter. The supplies are to be delivered at Berwick before 15 August. The like, for supplies to be delivered at Berwick, to the sheriffs of the undermentioned counties, under the supervision of the clerks detailed for the purpose:
