On every cart-load of sea fish — 2d.
On every horse-load of sea fish — 4d.
On every tun of wine — 1d.
On every horse-load of ashes — 4d.
On every horse-load of honey — 4d.
On every tun of honey — 3d.
On every sack of wool — 2d.
On every truss of cloth brought by cart — 2d.
On every horse-load of cloth, or of divers small wares — 4d.
On every cart-load of iron — 1d.
On every cart-load of lead and tin — 2d.
On every horse-load of tan, per week — 4d.
On goods sold by weight (de averio de pondere), that is on every hundred — 1d.
  On every wye (peisa) of tallow and grease — 1d.
  On every quarter of wood — 2d.
  On every hundred of alum and copperas — 4d.
  On two thousand onions — 4d.
  On every horse-load of garlic — 4d.
  On every thousand herrings — 4d.
  On every hundred of boards — 4d.
  On every mill-stone — 4d.
  On every quarter of salt — 4d.
  On every quarter of flour — 4d.
  On every way of cheese and butter — 4d.
  On every twelve horse-loads of charcoal — 4d.
  On every cart-load of brushwood, per week — 4d.
  On every horse-load of brushwood, per week — 4d.
  On every brewing caldron — 4d.
  On every bale of cordwain — 2d.
  On every ship laden with brushwood — 4d.
  On every thousand of roof nails (de quotilibet miliari clavorum ad cumulum domus) — 4d.
  On every hundred of horse-shoes and cart-clouts — 4d.
  On two thousand nails of all kinds, except cart-clouts and roof nails — 4d.
  On every truss of any kind of wares exceeding in value
     five shillings — 4d.

By p.s.

Indemnity for Marmaduke de Twenge upon payment into the Exchequer of 20l. on account of a sum of 100l., the arrears of a pension of 40l. a year due from him to Walter, bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, and of a further sum of 20l., being that part of the pension due at Whitsuntide in the first year of the king’s reign. By bill of Exchequer.

Writ de intendendo for John de Britannia, earl of Richmond, directed to the tenants of the lands late of John de Balliolo in the counties of Northampton, Lincoln, Northumberland, York, Derby, Huntingdon, Rutland, Bedford, Middlesex and Suffolk, which the king has granted to the earl.

Roger, prior of Little Malvern, staying in England, has letters nominating Ralph de Norton and Geoffrey de Malverne his attorneys in Ireland for two years.

Reginald Russel and Margaret his wife, staying in England, have letters nominating Henry Russel and Richard le Graunt their attorneys in Ireland for two years.