1312.

Membrane 5—cont.

Mandate in pursuance directed to sheriffs, bailiffs and other ministers for the arrest of all persons, who in derogation of the king's authority may attempt by citations, appeals, or in any other manner to disturb Robert de Bardelby, king's clerk, in the peaceable possession of the church of Boston, to which the king has presented him.

By K.

May 1.

Grant, for life, to Henry de Bello Monte of the land of Man with all its dominion and royal right, together with knights' fees, advowsons of churches and religious houses, liberties, free customs, escheats and all other its appurtenances to hold by the services which the lords of Man were accustomed to render to the kings of Scotland.

By K.

May 25.

William de Ayrmynne, clerk, has letters for the church of Whiteberne, in the diocese of Durham, like the above letters for Robert de Bardelby.

By K.

May 25.

Safe-conduct, for one year, for William Servat, king's merchant, whom the king has commanded to provide cloth for the Wardrobe.

By K., on the information of E. de Malo Lacu.

May 31.

Grant to Thomas de Stafford, king's yeoman, of the marriage of Scholastica, late the wife of Godfrey de Melsa, tenant in chief, or of any penalty incurred by her through marrying without licence.

By K., on the information of E. de Malo Lacu.

June 3.

Appointment of John de Neville, sheriff of Lincoln, William de Spanneby and Robert de Lytheburgh, keepers of the lands of the Templars in the county of Lincoln, which are in the king's hands, to sell to the value of 1,000 marks trees and underwood of the woods of the Templars in that county in the most convenient places by view of John Trevian, clerk, and Richard de Assherugge. They are to answer at the Exchequer for the proceeds thereof.

By K., on the information of E. de Malo Lacu.

June 4.

Licence for the prior and Friars Preachers of Newcastle-upon-Tyne to erect a wooden swivel bridge (pontem versatilem) five feet wide across the new dyke of the town, by which they will be able to go from their house within the wall of the town through a postern in the wall to their garden beyond the dyke, and also to erect a paling round the garden where the garden wall formerly was. If any danger threatens, the paling and bridge are to be removed with all speed.

By K.

June 4.

Grant to Mereduc son of Maddoc ap Thlowelyn, staying in the king's service, on account of his father being a prisoner in the king's prison, of