1313.

Membrane 16—cont.

answer at the Exchequer, to Edward the king's son, from 2 December, 1312, on which day the king granted to his son the castle and manor of Karesbroke, and all his manors and lands in the Isle of Wight, with their members, and all liberties, customs, homages, services, rents, forests, chases, parks, villenages, knights' fees, advowsons of churches, abbeys, priories and hospitals, escheats, wreck of sea, and all other rights.

March 30.

Pardon to Robert de Bures and Hilary his wife for acquiring, without licence, to them and his heirs, from Roger de Hodeboville, the manor of Aketon, which is held in chief as of the honor of Hatfeld Peverell, as appears by an inquisition taken by the sheriff of Suffolk and returned into the Chancery.

By fine of 5 marks.

March 25.

Pardon to Hugh le Despenser, the elder, on account of his good service, of all accounts and reckonings, which he is bound to render to the king for the time in which he was a minister, as well of king Edward I. as of the present king; also grant to him that any lands which he has acquired and which he holds himself, or which, though held by other persons will revert to him, shall be discharged of all debts due to the king with which they are charged, and that no distraint shall be levied upon him and his heirs for such debts.

By K.

March 25.

Pardon to Hugh le Despenser, the elder, on account of his good service, of all debts in which he is bound to the king at the Exchequer, in the time of the present king, and of the king's ancestors, as well his own debts as those of his ancestors, of the arrears of farms and reliefs, and for any other cause.

By K.

April 1.

Agnes de Cumbe and Agnes de Chalfhunt, nuns of the church of St. Mary, Winchester, bringing news of the death of A., late abbess of that place, have letters of licence to elect.

April 2.

Mandate directed to archbishops, bishops, abbots, priors, earls, barons, knights, free men, and the entire commonalty of the county of Northumberland, to use their utmost endeavours in defending the county against Robert de Brus and his accomplices, enemies and rebels against the king from Scotland. The king is fully informed by Robert de Umfraville, earl of Anegos, of the losses and grievances that have been inflicted on them by such rebels. In answer to their application for aid before Midsummer, the king will before that feast, ordain what may be needed for the repulse of the enemy, and for ensuring their own safety. [Parl. Writs.]

1312.

Dec. 9.

Windsor.

Presentation of Bartholomew de Cotyngham to the vicarage of the church of Harewurth, in the diocese of York.

By p.s.

1313.

April 6.

Sheen.

Protection, for one year, for Robert de Bardelby, parson of the church of Boston, staying in the king's service for the public benefit.

By K.

April 7.

Sheen.

Licence for the abbot and convent of Haghemon to enclose 60 acres of waste of their own soil in their wood of Haghemon, which is within the metes of the forest of Haghemon, co. Salop, with a little dyke and a low hedge, according to the assize of the forest, and to reduce the same to cultivation.

By K., on the information of Hugh le Despenser.

March 5.

Windsor.

Grant to Elias de Tyngewik and Alice his wife, in compensation for lands and tenements which he gave to the king, of 30l. a year issuing