Membrane 9. (Roll annexed)—cont.

The like for Roger de Wyngefeld, clerk, going beyond seas on the king's service as above.

William le Parker, who with Roger de Wyngefeld, clerk, are going, &c.
William de Fewelle,
William de Alvyryate,

The like for Ingelard de Warle, keeper of the Wardrobe, going beyond seas on the king's service as above.

Reginald de Warle, who with Ingelard de Warle, keeper of the Wardrobe, are going beyond seas, have letters of protection as above.
Thomas Chaunterel,
William de Dranefeud,
Thomas de Farendon,
William Herlessone,
William de Perton,
Philip de Warle,

Richard de Haveyngges,
John de Derneford,
Walter de Ran,
Adam de Thorpe,

The like for Nicholas de Segrave, going beyond seas on the king's service.

Henry de Segrave, who with Nicholas de Segrave are going beyond seas, have letters of protection as above.
Richard de la Rokele,
Gerard de Insula,
Richard de Caple,
John de Insula,
William de Weldon,

The like for Richard Lovel, going beyond seas on the king's service.

William Punchardoun, who with Richard Lovel are going beyond seas, have letters of protection as above.
William de Wilton,
Roger de Blokesworthe.

Ingelard de Warle, going as above, has letters nominating Roger de Walyston his attorney until Michaelmas.

John de Britannia, earl of Richmond, going as above, has letters nominating Robert de Kersebroke and John Cotun his attorneys until St. Peter ad Vincula.

The undermentioned persons, going as above, have like letters nominating their attorneys, viz.—

Henry de Chesterton, under the names of Robert de Marchumlye, clerk, and James de Podmore.
Stephen le Blound, under the names of John de Brichulle and Roger Warde.
John de Pelham, under the names of Henry de Oldyngton and Walter de Cumpton.
Peter de Cusancia, under the names of Robert de Kersebroke and John Cotun.
Reginald de Cusancia, under the names of John Cotun and John de Rys.
Gerard de Cusancia, under the names of John Cotun and John de Rys.
Walter Waldeshef, under the names of John Waldeshef and Thomas de Pilcote.
Robert de Etton, under the name of Robert de Bekyngham.