Acquittance to the chapter of St. Paul's, London, for 200l. received from them in the Wardrobe by the hands of Ingelard de Warle, king's clerk, keeper of the Wardrobe, in part payment of the sum of money which the chapter is bound to render to the king for the custody of the temporalities of the bishopric of London, void and in the king's hands by reason of the death of Ralph, the late bishop of London, which custody the king has granted to the chapter to hold so long as the see shall be void.

Grant to Roger de Felton, during pleasure, or until the king shall otherwise provide for his estate, of a rent of 30l. a year, to be received by him at the hands of Henry de Segrave, who holds the manor of Burgh from the king subject to rendering that sum at the Exchequer. By K.

Commission to Alexander de Claveringe, sheriff of the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, and Alexander le Convers, clerk, to arrest and take thirty of the greater and better ships, which may be found along the sea coast of those counties, and to levy footmen well armed with fitting arms to embark in those ships, so that both the men and ships may be ready and prepared in the port of Sandwich in the quinzaine of the Assumption to set out on the king's service in the train of William de Monte Acuto and of other lieges in obedience to further orders from the king. [Foedera.]

The like to John de Insula and Robert de Haliwell to arrest and take thirty of the greater and better ships between the bridges (sic) of Plumathe and Shorham and to levy men so that they shall be at the port of Wyncheke, as above. [Foedera.]

The like to John Aygnel, sheriff of the county of Essex, and Alexander le Convers, to arrest and take the greater and better ships, which may be
