

1313.

Membrane 1d—cont.

goods, assaulted his men and servants, and committed other trespasses, to the heavy loss of the said John Snow and contrary to the king's protection and peace. By K.

Dec. 7. The like to Walter de Goushille, John de Annesley and John de Minster in the Isle of Thanet. Donecastre, touching an appeal in the county of Nottingham by Thomas son of Roger de Beltoft the younger (junior), against Thomas son of Thomas de Bekingham, Robert his brother, Robert Styvel, Hugh de Wyburne of Bekingham, William parson of the church of Maundeby, John and Hugh his brothers, Robert son of John, Hugh his son, Richard de Kinardesfery of Bekingham, Alan his son, Oliver Takel, Richard Tredewelle, Robert son of Theobald, Isabella his mother, John Roumfare of Geynesburgh, Simon le Suter of Geynesburgh, Robert de Lound, Walter de Bugyeton, Katherine daughter of Agnes Wynter of Bekyngham, Isabella daughter of Henry Sprodde, Robert Parys and Robert Cully for the death of Robert de Beltoft his father.

By fine of 20s. made in Chancery.

Dec. 15. Commission to Robert de Cliderhow and Walter de Berthorp to enquire Dover. by oath of good men of the county of Worcester touching the persons who with Masculm Musard, Robert de Kyngton of Pershore, Geoffrey parson of the church of Abbots Morton, Robert de Harleie, John le Bakere of [Pershore], Stephen de Dymmok, James de Astewode, 'forester,' Robert le Cartare, Osbert de Dymmok, Henry Austyn, John le Gynour of Herforton, Elias Aylmer, Henry Peress . . ., Robert le Gynour, John le Pope, Ralph Haryot, Adam le Fevre of Lenchwyke and William le Fevre of Lenchwike, forcibly broke the doors of the houses of Robert de Somery of Bishampton, at Herforton, co. Worcester, and carried away his goods. By fine of 40s.