which translation be, by his letters close, announced to the king, who caused the temporalities of the archbishopric, as if it were void, to be taken into his hands on 21 October last; and as the Pope has now addressed his letters patent to him touching the translation, the king has restored the temporalities of Canterbury to the archbishop.

Feb. 22. Canterbury. Mandate to the justices in eyre in the county of Kent to permit the archbishop of Canterbury to receive and have the fines and amercements of the men and tenants of the archbishopric, and the chattels of men and tenants of the same, felons, fugitives and condemned persons, and also year, day and waste of the lands of felons, fugitives, and of persons condemned in the eyre from 21 October last, as his predecessors were accustomed to receive the same. They are to make a division of the fines, amercements, chattels, year, day and waste, before 21 October and after, in the extracts to be delivered to the Exchequer, that the treasurer and barons thereof may know of those things of which the archbishop was challenged, which were adjudged after 21 October. By K.

Feb. 22. Canterbury. Remission, for life, to Isabella de Bello Monte, lady of Vescy, on account of her good service to queen Isabella, of the under-mentioned sum of 15l. 0s. 1/2d., payable by her, so that she may hold the under-mentioned manors quit of all rent. She had formerly held at farm, for her life, of the king's grant, the custody of the castle of Bamburgh, with truncage there, and the rent of the town of Warennum the, with all things appertaining to that custody, rendering 110l. yearly for the same at the Exchequer, and afterwards, in consideration of the great charges and expenses which she incurred on the king's service in the train of queen Isabella, the king remitted that rent, granting to her to hold the custody of the castle with the truncage and rents, together with 40s. a year hitherto paid by her, out of the value of 13 acres of arable land with a several pasture there, quit of the said farm of 110l., and of the said 40s. Afterwards she surrendered to the king the castle, truncage, rent, land, and pasture, in recompense for which he granted to her the manors of Thoresweye, Stacyton, Lyndwode, and Keylesthorpe, co. Lincoln, and Waye and Pylde, co. Dorset, which are extended at 127l. 0s. 1/2d. a year to hold for her life, rendering yearly at the Exchequer the above-mentioned sum of 15l. 0s. 1/2d., by which the value of the manors exceeds the said sum of 112l.

Feb. 22. Canterbury. Mandate in pursuance to the person holding the place of treasurer, and to the barons of the Exchequer, to cause her to be discharged of the rent of 15l. 0s. 1/2d. at the Exchequer.

Feb. 22. Canterbury. Pardon to the master and brethren of the Domus Dei of Ospringe, for acquiring in mortmain, without licence, a moiety of a carucate of land in the island of Shepeye, from Elizabeth daughter of William Noel, who held it in chief; with restitution of the same. By K.

Feb. 22. Canterbury. Mandate to John Abel, esherantor on this side Trent, for the restitution to Robert de Stonham, a canon of St. Denys, Southampton, whose election as prior of the house has been confirmed by H. bishop of Winchester, of the temporalities of that house, the king having accepted the bishop's confirmation, and taken fealty from the prior.

Feb. 22. Canterbury. Writ de intendendo for the prior, directed to the knights, free men, and other tenants of the house.
